Hinds Instructor Named 'Professor of the Year'

Dr. Nell Ann Pickett, instructor of English on the Raymond Campus has been named Mississippi 1991 Professor of the Year, by the Washington, D.C.-based Council for Advancement and Support of Education (CASE).

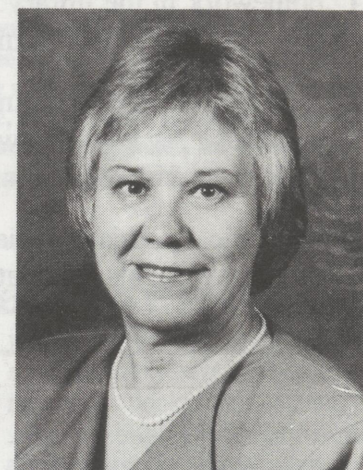

From this year's field of 439 entries from 337 institutions nationwide, and a total of 43 state winners, Pickett is one of only three instructors from two-year colleges to receive this award.

Since 1981, CASE has annually recognized outstanding undergraduate teaching with this award, which has become known as one of the most prestigious awards honoring professors.

The selection process takes place in several stages, with criteria including an extraordinary commitment to teaching; service to the institution and the profession; balance of achievement in teaching, scholarship, and service to the institution; evidence of impact on and involvement with students, as well as evidence of achievement by former students; and the support of current and former students.

Pickett is a 1955 graduate of Hinds Community College, with degrees from Mississippi University for Women, the George Peabody College for Women at Vanderbilt University, and the University of Mississippi. She has taught at Hinds since 1965 and has been the recipient of other awards for her teaching, including the SCETC Greg Cowan Memorial Award for Excellence

Alcohol Awareness Week Set For October 13-19

President Muse declares October 13-19 as Alcohol Awareness Week at Hinds Community College

Hinds President Clyde Muse today officially proclaimed October 13-19, as "Alcohol Awareness Week." Student-run activities on the local campus, supported by faculty and administration, will coincide with National Alcohol Awareness Week (NCAAW).

Students at Hinds and nationwide are promoting alcohol education, development of student decision-making skills and positive peer influence. Now in its sixth year, NCAAW is sponsored by the Inter-Association Task Force on Alcohol and Other Substance Abuse Issues, representing student affairs professionals across the country.

"Alcohol Awareness Week at Hinds Community College initiates a year-round emphasis on alcohol education and recognition of the individual's ultimate responsibility for decisions regarding use or non-use of alcohol", said Program Coordinator, Tara Serio. "It is in the best interest of students, faculty, administrators and the community that such decision-making be responsible and well-informed. In addition, we want to encourage a partnership to prevent campus problems associated with alcohol misuse."

Alcohol Awareness Week will include various discussions, displays and activities across the college campuses aimed at prevention through education and individual responsibility in connection with the use of alcohol. (see Awareness, page 2)

Prayer Breakfast Set For October 24th

David Jackson, pastor of Meadowbrook Church of Christ, in Jackson, will be the speaker at the October 24th Prayer Breakfast.

Jackson is a graduate of Freed-Hardeman College (A.A.) and Harding University (B.A.) He received his master of arts and master of theology degrees from Harding University's Graduate School of Religion. He is currently pursuing the Doctor of Ministry degree from Abilene Christian University, in Texas.

He has served on the lectureship programs at Abilene

Christian University, Harding University, and Pepperdine University; and for eight years, was chair of the Bible Department at Memphis University School, a college preparatory school for boys. Since 1982, he has served as pulpit minister for Meadowbrook Church of Christ.

The Prayer Breakfast format will be somewhat different from past years. It will begin at 7:15 AM with Pastor Jackson speaking in Cain Hall, to be immediately followed by a complimentary Continental-style breakfast at Cain Hall.

Look At the Time!

The time! Look at the time! It's 10:30 P.M. and I have a chemistry test tomorrow. Forget the chemistry test, I have a six-page English paper due first thing in the morning! Oh no - and I have to be at work as soon as I get out of class. Oh - time! Where has the time gone?

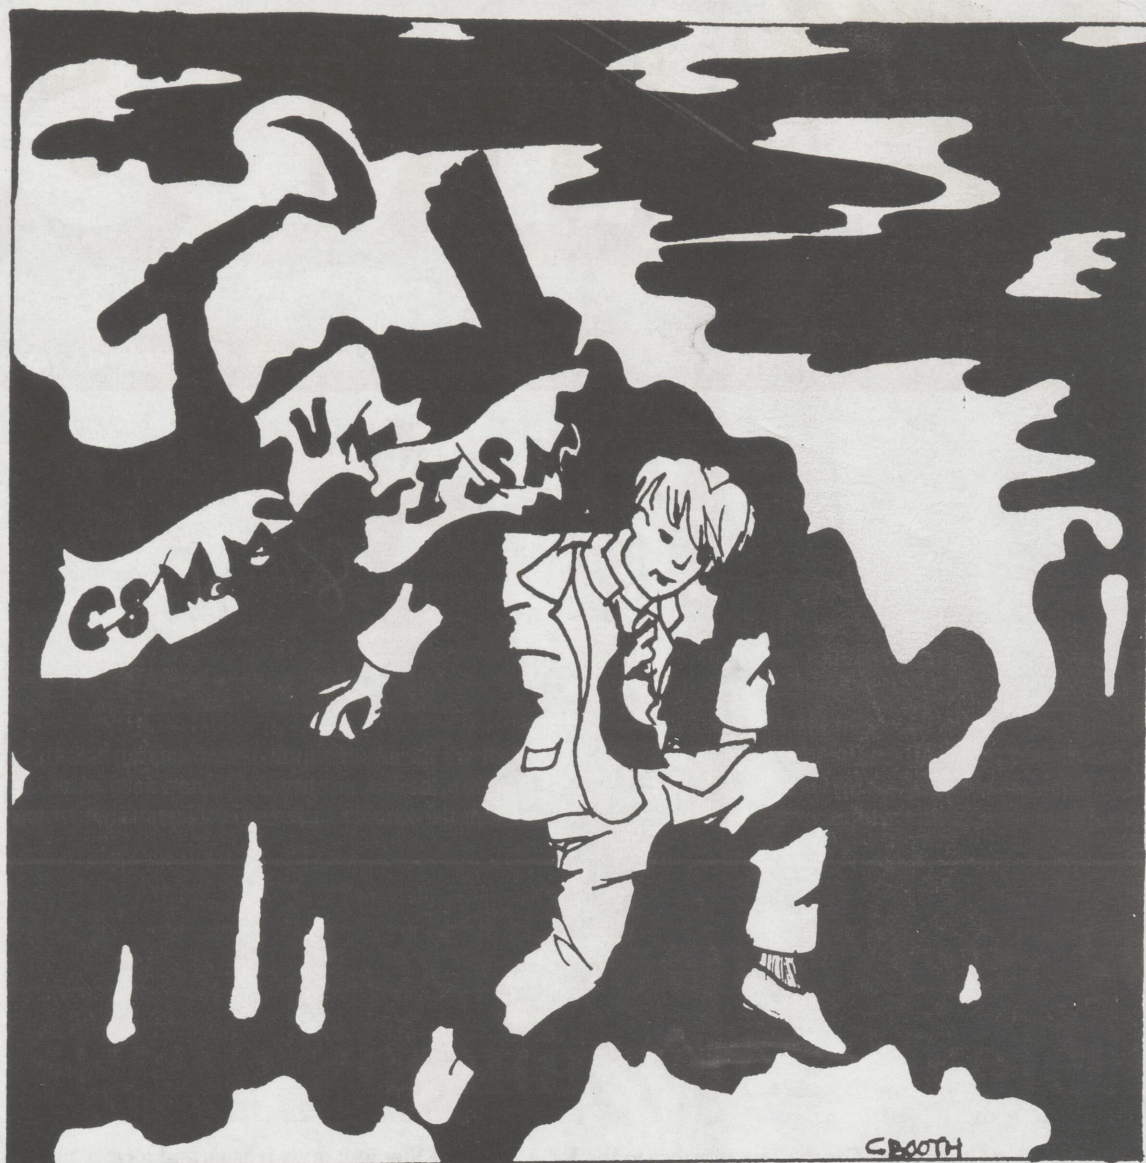

Sound familiar? Time is a definite problem for college students, especially for those with jobs. Those of us who have dealt with attending school and working at the same time know that the only solution is good time management.

Realizing that those few 'extra moments' are not always for recreation is probably the hardest part. Setting a schedule and sticking to it is the next step.

Utilize those 'extra moments'. If you have an hour break between two classes, spend it doing your homework in the library. You won't have to worry about it later that evening.

The only thing standing in the way between you and those As is your own self-discipline. Set your mind to it and you can use your time more wisely!

(Ironically, this editorial was written at 2:00 A.M. on the eve of its due date!)

Russia, communism, the breaking apart. Where will they end up?

Alcohol Awareness Week will take place from October 13 to October 19 on the Raymond campus. Designed to be a week to spotlight the dangers of drinking and driving, it will be filled with student activities.

Starting on Monday such events throughout the week will include: the showing of 'Days of Thunder', 'Your Life's in Jeopardy', a spin-off of TV's jeopardy game; Steak night outdoors; and the post-game dance featuring 'Club-ASG'-get your favorite 'mocktails'.

In addition, special guests will be on campus throughout the week with presentations. They include Rob Aptaker of S.A.D.D., State Attorney General Mike Moore, Lt. Pete Collins, Hank Spence - resident agent in charge of the Drug Enforcement Agency, and even Vince and Larry, the two 'crash dummies'.

"Presidential Speaking"

by
Dr. Clyde Muse

We would like to welcome our returning students, entering freshmen, and other first-time students to the 1991 fall semester of the Hinds Community College District. We trust that you will experience a unique and most pleasant educational experience here at Hinds. We feel that you will find our faculty and staff most deserving of its reputation for being dedicated, efficient, eager to serve, and concerned with the needs of our students while providing quality educational experiences for each student.

The approximately 12,000 student enrollment this fall makes the college one of the largest institutions of higher learning in the state. It appears at this time that we will have approximately a 4% increase in enrollment. This represents an increase of about 490 students. The largest increase being 570 academic students. We certainly appreciate the confidence that our students have placed in us by enrolling in our college. Many Mississippians are discovering the fact that they can cut the cost of higher education dramatically by starting at a community college.

The Hinds Community College District consists of four campuses - Raymond, Utica, Jackson, Rankin, and the Vicksburg-Warren County Branch. The Jackson Campus includes the Academic/Technical Center, the Nursing/Allied Health Center, and the Universities Center. We are extremely proud of our student body and the contributions made by our students on our campuses, on the campuses of other institutions, and in the world of work.

Mississippi pioneered the community college movement nationwide. The community college is a uniquely American institution. It is the institution that sits in a position of transition. More than any other institution, it has a built-in natural relationship with working America.

We appreciate the trust you have shown in our college by enrolling and we look forward to providing a quality educational experience while you are here.

This coming year we anticipate that we will receive approximately $4.5 million for capital improvement projects from Hinds, Rankin, Warren, and Claiborne counties. Copiah County currently does not provide any millage for capital improvement. One of the most significant contributions is Hinds County's millage of .71 which provided a bond issue of approximately $7 million. These funds will be used for several projects including:

1) A new cafeteria on the Raymond Campus at the cost of approximately $5 million

2) An Agricultural Multi-Purpose Building for the Agricultural Complex at a cost of $750,000

3) An Academic and Technical Classroom Building for the Jackson Campus at a cost of $1,250,000.

Construction of the multi-purpose building and the classroom building is underway and will be completed within the year.

Bids for the new cafeteria on the Raymond Campus were opened August 22. With this construction project in the middle of the campus, a great deal of patience will be needed by students, faculty, and staff. The cafeteria is scheduled for completion in January 1993.

Plans are underway to air condition the D. W. L. Davis Building on the Utica Campus. This will complete the air conditioning of buildings on the Utica Campus. Also, the Boyd Gymnasium floor has been refinished.

A new Student Services Building on the Rankin Campus should be completed in September.

A number of renovations, repairs, and re-roofing projects are under way throughout the district. These projects should be completed within the next few weeks.

The assistance of approximately $800,000 a year from the state for the past two fiscal years for renovation and repairs has been very helpful to us.

I would like to express appreciation to all of the people who have had a part in the improvement of our physical facilities. No doubt, our campuses are the most beautiful and provide an atmosphere conducive to learning. I am proud of the wide variety of programs and services being provided to our students.

Your student officials have been meeting and planning activities for the opening of this session. I am tremendously impressed by the work of your leaders and feel that they have some exciting plans for students for the coming year. Special congratulations are due to the football cheerleaders and Ernie the Eagle on their outstanding achievements at the 1991 Universal Cheerleaders Association competition. Honors received by the squad include first place in Fight Song and second place in Cheer & Chant. Also, Ernie the Eagle received a superior rating in mascot competition. I would challenge each of you to work with your elected student leaders by becoming involved and supporting these activities.

At Hinds, athletic competition and achievement are strong. The most recent evidence of this is the 1990-91 state championships which Hinds won in golf, men's tennis, women's tennis, and track. Hinds also won the NJCAA Region XXIII Championship in women's basketball, golf, men's tennis, women's tennis, track, and soccer. Winning national recognition included women's basketball, sixth in the nation; golf, third in the nation; women's tennis eighth in the nation; and football, sixteenth in the nation.

In summary, we reaffirm our commitment to quality education for all high school graduates and adults. We propose to continue to work with our colleges and universities to facilitate the transfer of students and credits. We reaffirm our commitment to the "open door" of educational opportunity.

We certainly hope that you will find the year just as exciting and rewarding as we feel it will be. Your learning resources are here - faculty, staff, facilities and opportunities. They are yours for the asking.

Entertainment Review

by Cole Cabler

Harley Davidson and the Marlboro Man was a surprisingly good movie. It takes place five years into the future, but don't expect to see a futuristic thriller. All the cars look the same and they still use good ole lead in their bullets.

Apparently, that's exactly what the directors wanted. They paint a realistic picture of what life will be like in five years. Basically, things are the same except that the drug world has become more hi-tech, which has to do with the plot.

The movie loosely resembles Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid. Mickey Rourke (Harley) and Don Johnson (Marlboro) do justice to the two originals. It seems that they have stopped selling their looks and actually started acting. They work well together and the plot should have delved deeper into their friendship. Although the movie is an action picture it also has a human side that doesn't come across as being fake.

Harley Davidson and the Marlboro Man is a totally fictitious movie (think about the title). However, I've seen movies that are supposed to be based on reality that are more unreal than this one.

There are no amazing get-aways and it's not too deep. So, if you want to see an entertaining movie that will surprise you, I give this one thumbs up.

ASG Roundup

by Jennifer Mahaffey

ASG has begun this year with a bang! We have 36 members, and all are excited and ready to work. ASG stands for Associated Student Government. We are the eyes and ears of the students of Hinds Community College, and the channel by which faculty and administrators obtain the fullest degree of communication between themselves and the students.

ASG is here for you! We are here to serve you, the students, by presenting student input through elections, special activities, intramurals, clubs, organizations, and senate committees. Each club and organization, residence hall, and commuters are represented by ASG Senators. These Senators gather your input and answers to decisions and questions that are brought before the Campus Senate. So, if you see an area where improvement is much needed, or if you would like to comment on an area that seems to be working well here at Hinds, see your Senator, and let ASG know. We are here to tackle the toughest of problems and to make your college experience at Hinds Community College the best possible experience you can have.

The ASG office is located in the basement of Denton Gym, (see ASG, page 6)

Hinds Drops Season Opener to Holmes CC

What seemed to be the first win of the season for the Hinds Community College Eagles turned into defeat with 29 seconds to play when Holmes Community College's Kelly Alderman put a 49-yard field goal through the posts to give the Bulldogs a 16-14 win over the Hinds Eagles.

Going into the season opener the Hinds Eagles were ranked number 2 in the nation and were State Runner-up last season finishing with a 9-3 record while Holmes entered the game with a 3-7 record from last season.

Hinds opened the game with a 98-yard kickoff return by wide receiver Willie Fletcher of Puckett and Hinds' Shane Martin of Jackson made the point after to give the Eagles a 7-0 lead. Both the Eagles and Bulldogs were unable to score during the second period of the game.

After three plays in the third period, Holmes' Willie Cross threw a pass directly into the hands of Hinds defensive back Drew Hannon of Byram, who ran for a 12-yard touchdown. Martin again added the point after and Hinds maintained their lead 14-0.

The first score for the Bulldogs came with 3:14 to play in the third period when Torri Allen completed a 5-yard pass to Reggie Ferguson for the TD and Kelly Alderman added the extra point.

The Bulldogs made their last TD with 4:31 to play in the game when Reggie Ferguson made a 40-yard sprint. Holmes went for the 2 points on a pitchout left but Willie Cross was stopped short of the goal line by Hinds' Eric Johnson.

Hinds had a total of 179 yards while the Bulldogs had a total of 331 yards. Hinds had 135 rushing and 44 passing while the Bulldogs had 54 rushing and 277 passing.

Hinds Crushes Southwest Bears

With the first weeks opening game defeat to Holmes as a memory, the Hinds Community College Eagles took to the field against the Bears of Southwest and claimed their first home game win of the season by a wide margin of 31-14.

The Eagles were scoreless during the first period but the Bears managed to put points on the board with 1:54 to play in the period when Curtis Spears made a 1-yard run and Doug Mixon added the point after.

Hinds scoring began as Troy Nelson of Tallahassee, FL came off the bench and with 11:34 left in the period Nelson ran in from the 1-yard line for the TD. Shane Martin of Jackson added the extra point tying the game. Shortly after with 9:39 to play Nelson and Martin again scored for the Eagles but this time from the 10-yard line.

Not to be out-done Southwest's Spears and Mixon added 7 more points to the board for the Bears tying the game at the half 14-14.

The second half belonged to the Eagles as they opened the period with a 64-yard return. Nelson then carried for the TD from the 9 with Martin adding the point after and Hinds took a 21-14 lead over the Bears. Martin added a 24-yard field goal to the Eagles' side of the board with 5:31 to play in the third period pushing Hinds ahead by 10 points.

Hinds put their last points on the board during the fourth period with 9:41 to play when Nelson threw a 33-yard touchdown pass to Earnest Marshall. Shane Martin added the point after and the Eagles had their first win of the season. Both the Eagles and the Bears are 1-1 for the season.

Hinds CC Golf Pro Wins Championship

Anthony Price of Raymond overcame a four-shot deficit Thursday to win the Ping-Pepsi Gulf States PGA Championship by two shots at Canton. Price, golf professional at Eagle Ridge Golf Club at Hinds Community College, shot a 5-under-par 67 at Canton Country Club to post a three-day total of 7-under 209.

Stan Stopa of New Orleans' Audubon Golf Club shot a 72 to finish second at 211. Ernest Ross (75) of the Country Club of Jackson and Gordon Johnson (70) of New Orleans Country Club tied for third at 213.

Price entered the final round at 142, four strokes behind Ross, the Gulf States PGA Match Play champion. The 67 was the tournament's low 18-hole round.

Price, who collected $1,700, won the Mississippi PGA invitational championship in July. He is a leading candidate for Gulf States PGA player of the year honors.

ON THE MOVE — Zachary Crockett, fullback for the Hinds Eagles from Pompano Beach, Florida, gains ground for Hinds during the Southwest game. Hinds defeated the Bears 31-14. Crockett also has 3 touchdowns to his credit this season.

Eagles Attack Wildcats

Entering their fourth game of the year with a 1-1-1 record the Hinds Community College Eagles were hoping for game four against the Wildcats of Pearl River to fall into the win column, and that it did.

Coming from behind by 11 points at the end of the third period the Eagles were able to put 19 points on the board during the fourth period and took their second win of the year, 35-27.

In the first period the only score the Eagles were able to muster was on a 45 yard field goal by Shane Martin. Pearl River came through with 7 on a TD by James Holloway and the point after by Brett Moylan.

Both teams scored during the second period with Holloway again carrying for Pearl River for 6-yards and Moylan making the extra point while Zachary Crockett made the touchdown for Hinds on a 9-yard pass from Phillip Arrant and Martin adding the point after.

The Wildcats came alive during the third period scoring 13 points with the first being a 83-yard pass play by Kyle Cook from Colby Stewart. Clay Hudson then scored for the Eagles on an 8-yard run but the point after was no good. Holloway again scored for the Wildcats on a 10-yard run with Moylan adding the point after and at the end of the third period the Wildcats were leading Hinds 27-16.

Introducing a new quarterback to the game late in the third period the Eagles came alive during the fourth period as Clay Hudson guided the Eagles to their second season victory.

During the fourth period Hudson passed 30-yards to Albert Sweet for the TD and 13-yards to Earnest Marshall for another fourth period score. Zachary Crockett scored again on a 2-yard run and Shane Martin only made 1 of 3 points after attempts during the last period.

Hudson, 13 of 18 for 170 yards, completed eight straight passes and nine of his first 10 as the Eagles moved to 2-1-1 overall and 2-0 in the South Division.

Hinds, Northwest Battle to 7-7 Tie

It may have been like a tennis match with the ball going back and forth and no scoring taking place, but it was Thursday night football as the Hinds Community College Eagles and Northwest Community College Rangers met for a clash that ended in a 7-7 tie and placed the Eagles with a 1-1-1 record while the Rangers moved to a 2-0-1 record.

With a game full of fumbles, interceptions, sacks and penalties the first period ended without any points on the board.

The second period opened with the Eagles in control of the ball but with only 56 seconds gone Northwest's Alonzo Homer picked up a Hinds fumble and from 34 yards out made the first and only touchdown of the game for the Rangers. Lonny Calicchio made the point after and the Rangers maintained their 7-0 lead until the fourth period.

With 5:17 remaining to play in the game Hinds quarterback Troy Nelson connected on a 55 yard pass to Hason Graham for the Eagles first and only TD. The Eagles were then penalized 15 yards for post-score celebrating in the end zone, causing kicker Shane Martin to kick from the 34-yard line for the point after which tied up the game.

Hinds had a total of 302 yards to the Rangers 292. Hinds has 171 rushing and 131 passing while Northwest has 152 rushing and 140 passing.

The Eagles will travel to East Central Community College in Decatur Saturday, October 5, to face the Warriors at 7:30 P.M.

HCC Nips Delta

It started as a good evening for the nationally ranked number 5 Mississippi Delta Community College Trojans but as the night lingered on they found that the Hinds Community College Eagles were not going to let them claim their fifth victory of the season.

Hinds entered the contest 2-1-1 but finished the evening with another win under their belts as they knocked off the Moorhead team 19-7. The Eagles are still 2-0 in the South Division while the Trojans also remain at 2-0 in the North Division.

Mississippi Delta was only able to score late in the fourth period after Adarryl Ward gained 46-yards and moved the ball to the 2-yard line. Billy Daves then gained another yard leaving the touchdown to Mark Mitchell. Bruce Walker added the point after.

The Eagles scored twice during the first period with both scores being made by kicker Shane Martin of Jackson who kicked a 23-yard field goal with 8:09 to play in the first period and then a 34-yard field goal with 4:48 remaining. This gave Hinds a 6-0 edge over the unbeaten Trojans of Mississippi Delta.

Midway through the second period Vicksburg defensive back Kenny Miller blocked a 27-yard field goal try by Mississippi Delta's Bruce Walker. Miller then blocked Ward Gilbert's punt and recovered at the Delta 2-yard line. With 7:27 to play Zachary Crockett of Pompano Beach, Florida carried for the Eagles first touchdown. A two-point pass failed and Delta's Marcus Woods intercepted for the Trojans.

Hinds last score of the game came with 9:09 on the clock when the Eagles new quarterback Clay Hudson of Jackson connected on an 18-yard pass to Hason Graham of Decatur, Georgia for the TD, Martin added the point after.

If you know an Eagle baseball alum who might enjoy playing in this game, tell'em to show up on the 25th at M.C. in Clinton.

Anyone who loves baseball should not miss watching these friendly battles.

The Hinds Community College soccer team is off to its best start ever with a 3-1 record. Victories have been over Rinehardt Community College 2-0, Young Harris Community College 4-0, and Martin Methodist Community College 3-1. The only loss came at the Hinds of number 4 nationally ranked Tyler from Texas. The Eagle kickers have been led by the strong defensive play of Arnie Hogue and Kevin Topik and have had a very balanced offensive game led by Brian Brooks, Justus Griffin, and Robert Sims.

Upcoming matches have the team traveling to Dallas for a return match with Tyler and a match with nationally ranked Richland Community College. The Eagles next home match is with Mississippi State, Sunday October 6, at 2:00 P.M.. On October 8, at 7:00 P.M. the team will play Mississippi College in the newly dedicated Renfro Stadium. Coach Shepherd and the players are very excited about the Mississippi College match because it will be played at a time when more students and faculty will be able to attend. According to Coach Shepherd, the team is improving rapidly and easily could be the best team he has had in several years. Take a break from the football and baseball season and have a look at the world's most popular game played Hinds way. The Hinds team is ranked 4th in the Southeast out of 20 teams.

Basketball, football, track

At Hinds, 'Motor' Carr lettered for two years in basketball and one year in football, illustrating the origin of his nickname. He also participated in track, and was voted Best Boy Athlete during his sophomore year.

While serving in the Pacific Theater with the U. S. Army 1st Infantry Division, he played basketball on the team that won the 'Japanese Occupation Championship.'

He received his BS degree from Millsaps College in 1949. There he played guard, averaging over 16 points per game. (In 1977, he was inducted into Millsaps' Sports Hall of Fame).

Carr received his master's degree in school administration from the University of Mississippi, in 1953, and began a three-year stint as teacher and coach in Brookhaven. He then coached at Holmes Junior College for four and a half years, with his team winning the State Junior College basketball championship in 1956. His 1957 team finished number one in the state and was top seeded in the state tournament that year.

In December, 1990 Carr retired after 37 years as a chemist at the U. S. Corps of Engineers Waterways Experiment Station in Vicksburg. He currently serves as a mathematics instructor at the Hinds Community College Vicksburg-Warren County Branch.

He and his wife, the former Betty Ann Williams, are the parents of three sons.

John H. Miller
1947-1949
Football, basketball, baseball, track

Edwards native, 'Johnny' Miller, loved all sports in high school, and attracted athletic scholarships from some of the 'big' schools, like Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Tulane, and LSU.

Choosing Hinds, he lettered in football, baseball, basketball and track, before getting his associate degree in business administration.

On graduation, the right halfback/runningback, was again on the receiving end of athletic scholarship offers from Ole Miss and MSU; as well as one from Auburn State. He opted for Millsaps College where he gained over 100 yards per game as a halfback and became Most Valuable Player and All Dixie Conference with first string honors. His top scoring in basketball, and his .500-plus baseball batting average took a short breather when he received his bachelor's degree in business administration in 1951.

Miller entered the U. S. Army, and played baseball on his post, where as the only non-professional player, he was the leading hitter with a .357 batting average.

After the service he continued playing semi-pro baseball; and is a 1987 Mississippi Semi-Pro Hall of Fame inductee.

The former proprietor of John's Men and Boys Wear, in Clinton, Miller currently is employed by Dillard's Department store.

He and his late wife Virginia Russell Miller, are the parents of three children, Rebecca, Steve, and Ken.

Jimmy Glisson
1946-December 1947
Football and baseball

Jimmy Glisson lettered in football as a high schooler in Yazoo City, before coming to Hinds in 1946.

At Hinds, the quarterbacking, fullbacking 'blitzkreig' was known as a 'great runner' with big touchdown talent.

Glisson lettered for two years in football, leading the Eagles to the Lions Bowl championship against Jones Junior College, in 1947. That same year he was named 'Heart of the Ball Club,' and All State Quarterback, while the Eagles were the highest scoring team in the Junior College Conference.

At Tulane University, from 1947 to 1950, he lettered for two years in baseball as well as in football. In 1949 he was selected All Southeastern Defensive Team.

He entered the U. S. Army, in 1950; and while stationed on a South Carolina base, he played on a National Army Championship Football Team.

Glisson and his late wife, Polly Phillips Glisson, raised their daughter, Gayle, in Holly Bluff. There, for 15 years he coached youth baseball; and also started, and for twelve years headed, a Boy Scout troop there.

Glisson is currently employed as a representative for Bituminous Asphalt Ceiling Specialty, Inc., of Little Rock, Arkansas. His daughter, now Gayle Bullock, of Tylertown, has two children

Todd and Polly.

Lida Nell Vaughn Hester
1947-1949
Basketball and tennis

Lida Nell Vaughan's basketball record left her characterized for all time as a 'truly outstanding athlete,' by her contemporaries at Hinds.

It was in her second year here, however, that all of her good work was rewarded. That year, 1949, she was named All State Basketball, while the Eaglettes won the State Championship with a perfect 23-0 score; and the Hinds tennis team took the State Junior College Doubles Championship.

After graduating from Hinds, she became involved in semi-pro basketball and softball, in Jackson, for six years. In basketball, her team went to the National AAU Tournament four times; and she was nominated for AAU All American.

She was offered a full scholarship to Wayland College, in Texas, and was offered a position on a professional softball team.

In 1983, after 32 years of service with South Central Bell Telephone Company, Hester retired as supervisor of the test center, in Meridian.

She was married to Wallace Hester, for 21 years, and raised two sons, Greg, who died in 1986, and Tim. Hester has two grandchildren.

HCC Printing Student Saves Family From Fire

by Chris Shannon

Over the summer most students have a good time and try to forget all of their responsibilities. Fredrid Townsey, a freshman, at Hinds Community College-Raymond Branch, majoring in Printing, took the ultimate responsibility of looking out for others beyond the concern for himself.

Townsey was walking home one night and saw his neighbor's apartment on fire. He went around to a back window and heard music playing. He immediately entered the home, awakened the two adults, and carried three sleeping children to safety just as the porch caved in. Thanks to the heroic action of this courageous student, five people may continue to enjoy their lives.

Townsey was honored for his bravery by Mayor Kane Ditto at a Jackson City Council meeting over the summer. Townsey said he 'was real surprised about receiving the award, but that it didn't matter as much as knowing that the children were safe.'

The fire was caused by an arsonist and a suspect has been arrested. Townsey can proudly go through life knowing that he did make a difference. There are five people alive today who would agree!

ASG Opens Year With Planning for Projects

by Bess Combs

As the new school year begins, so does another year of Associated Student Government. For those who do not know, ASG is a group of students representing various clubs and organizations across the campus that collectively make up the Associated Student Government of Hinds Community College.

ASG serves as a link between the faculty and the students that they represent. This semester ASG will meet each Tuesday at 3 P.M. in the basement of Denton Gym to discuss important issues concerning Hinds students and to provide a way for students to voice their opinions. Lack of parking places, the cafeteria's menu, and upcoming current events are always popular topics. ASG is a service provided for the students by the students.

Through the course of this year ASG will also sponsor a number of student activities. Each member will participate in a group project which will promote many humanitarian organizations such as the Baptist Children's Village, Community Stewpot, Mothers Against Drunk Driving, and the Ronald McDonald House.

Dr. Barbara Blankenship, Mrs. Tara Serio, and Jack Hite will serve as this year's faculty advisers to ASG. Student officers include Jennifer Mahaffey - President; Tracy Kirksey - Vice-President; Susan Nuckles - Secretary; and Michael McMillian - Parliamentarian.

Simmons, Bivins Honored October 26

Orvel Simmons

Hinds Board of Trustees members Orvel Simmons and Walter Bivins will be honored at the October 26 Homecoming Alumni Luncheon. Simmons has been named Alumnus of the Year while Bivins has been named the recipient of the Alumni Service Award.

Orvel H. Simmons, Class of 1940, has been named 1991 Hinds Community College Alumnus of the Year.

Simmons, a member of the Hinds Community College Board of Trustees since 1988, retired in 1983 as executive director of the Mississippi Unemployment Compensation Commission.

According to Talmadge Portis, fellow HCC Board member and former minority group representative for the Commission, Simmons was a pioneer in integrating the Employment Commission. 'He was very supportive of me in my position there,' he says.

Portis, now a plant manager at the Packard Electric Division of General Motors, in Clinton, credits Simmons, then assistant director for the Commission, as being instrumental, along with then-state director of vocational-technical education, A.P. Fatheree, in opening training programs to minorities.

Simmons, who had entered Hinds Junior College on an athletic scholarship, remained involved in the sports world for 33 years, serving as a basketball and football official for high schools and junior colleges throughout the state. During this time he helped to organize the Mississippi High School Football Officials Association and the Mississippi Intercollegiate Athletic Officials Association. He is a 1986 inductee into the Hinds Community College Sports Hall of Fame.

Shortly after he retired from the Commission, Simmons was involved in a training company for the Job Corps, Minorities in Action, Inc., and operated several training centers. He is currently in partnership in J & S Land Brokers, Inc., and is vice-president and general manager for Unemployment Compensation Control Systems, Inc.

Walter R. Bivins

Walter R. Bivins, vice-president of the Hinds Community College Board of Trustees, has been named the 1991 recipient of the Hinds Community College Alumni Service Award for outstanding service to the College.

Bivins, who has served on the Board for the past 23 years, says, 'Anyone would appreciate this award. It's as though the College has given me a passing grade.'

Bivins has earned a reputation as one of the most eloquent advocates of the two-year college system. In 1989, he served as president of the Mississippi Association of Community and Junior College Trustees, and was instrumental in helping the community and junior colleges of Mississippi retain local autonomy in the face of a bid for control by the Institutions of Higher Learning.

HCC president, Dr. Clyde Muse, says, 'Mr. Bivins has been a champion of the community college movement for decades. His work on behalf of you College and others is unparalleled, and when it comes to making changes to better serve our community, Mr. Bivins is leading the way.'

This year, Bivins was the recipient of the Association of Community College Trustees (ACCT) 1991 Regional Trustee Leadership Award, and is one of five community college trustees under consideration for the ACCT National Regional Trustees Leadership Award.

Bivins retired in 1976 from 42-years with the Mississippi Employment Security Commission, where he gained firsthand knowledge of the impact that community and junior colleges have upon the state's economic development.

Throughout his career with the Employment Security Commission, he consistently proclaimed, 'The junior college system is better equipped to adapt to the needs of industry than probably any other institution. Without this flexibility and assistance, I feel sure that many of these firms would not be in our state.'

Bivins believes the success of the community college system is linked to local governance and the cooperative efforts of the boards of supervisors, college board of trustees, and the administration and faculty of the community colleges.

'Local autonomy is absolutely necessary if junior colleges are to carry out their missions,' he says.

Lendon Players Present Classic British Comedy

The Lendon Players will present The Importance of Being Earnest by Oscar Wilde from October 30th to November 2nd in Brooks Theatre on the Raymond campus.

The play is a classic British comedy which was first shown on Valentine's Day in 1895. It ridicules the snobbish mannerisms of the Victorian English society; however, the Lendon Players will present the play in antebellum Atlanta.

The play stars Steven Smith,

Phil Huskey, Mitchell Moore, Mark Smith, Jennifer Taylor, Steffanie Haskins, Joyce Williams, and Tammy Sherwin.

The show will tour from November 5th to November 8th. November 5th they will perform at Jackson Prep and on November 7th, at Forest Hill. On November 8th the Lendon Players will travel to Starkville to perform in the American College Festival at Mississippi State University.

Students and faculty are invited to attend. Admission is free with a valid Hinds I.D.

S.E.E. is New Organization At Hinds This Year

A new organization on the Hinds Campus this year is the S.E.E. which stands for Students for Environmental Education.

The group plans to have films, guest speakers as well as other activities being planned. The meeting of S.E.E. will be each Wednesday in Reeves Hall in Room 101 at 2:00 P.M.

The new group would like for

Hinds students, faculty and staff to know that:

(1) If each of the two million people in Mississippi recycles one beverage can each day for a week, over 300 tons of aluminum would not end up in landfills.

(2) If the newspaper that the people of Mississippi read each morning could be recycled, over 4,100 trees could have been spared.

Texas Shrine Bowl invites Hinds Eagle football team

The Hinds Community College Eagle football team will be playing Tyler Junior College in the Texas Junior College Shrine Bowl on Saturday, December 7, at 1:30 PM at Tyler's Rose Stadium located at the Tyler Fair Grounds.

Hinds finished their season with a 7-2-2 record while Tyler had a 6-3-1 record. Hinds finished as the South Division Champs and Tyler was the Texas Conference Champs.

Prior to the football game the Hinds band and Hi-Steppers will participate in the Tyler Christmas Parade at 11:30 AM which will end up at the stadium prior to the game.

On Friday evening, December 6, at 6:00 PM a banquet will be held on the Tyler Junior College Campus honoring the coaches and players of the two teams that will be playing in the bowl game. Tickets are $10.00 and must be purchased in advance. Persons wishing to attend should call the Hinds Athletic Office at 857-3325 for further information.

Game tickets for Saturday's game will cost $7.50 for reserved seats and $4.00 for general admission seats. The proceeds from this game go to aid children at various Shriner's Hospitals.

The Eagles finished the year with a total of 1747-yards rushing and 1738-yards passing. Hinds scored a total of 229 points and only allowed 115 against them.

This will make the twelfth bowl appearance for the Tyler Junior College Apaches since their first, the Texas Rose Bowl in 1947.

The Apaches have a 5-0-1 conference record which tied them with the high-powered offense of Trinity Valley Community College. Since the TVCC Cardinals were the last to go to a bowl, Tyler Junior College will be the 1991 host team.

This season TJC had 18 returning sophomores to their Apache team.

Be Thankful!

Ah! Autumn! Crisp air, falling leaves, the holidays... Yes! It's 'Turkey Time', again.

As we head home for Thanksgiving, let's keep in mind the reason for our four-day holiday. We all know the story of the Pilgrims. They began the Thanksgiving tradition by feasting and giving thanks for all their blessings.

Though some of us don't necessarily think of spending the day with our families as a blessing, there are so many people who don't have the opportunities that we have.

We may not exactly think of trig homework as a blessing, but what about people who never get the chance to go to college? What about those of us who don't have families? What about the homeless who don't have a table to feast at and who may not even eat Thanksgiving Day?

There is so much to be thankful for. We live in a free country filled with proud men and women who have willingly made defending an idea called liberty their first priority. We have families and homes. We are attending college and preparing ourselves for an independent life.

We have so many blessings that we take for granted. Let's take this time to give thanks for it all.

A night to remember

I am so excited!! Remember that guy that I told you about, the one in my history class that looks so right!! Well, yesterday we had a major crackdown test and HE sat next to me. HE leaned over before the test started and asked me if I wanted to go out on Friday night.

I could hardly concentrate on The Civil War without thinking about HIM and what I was going to wear and if Tracy was going to let me borrow her earrings and where HE was going to take me. Maybe out to eat and a movie, maybe out to the lake and a midnight picnic, maybe to the football game, wow... what an evening!! Needless to say, The Civil War went out the window with my grades. Just to think that I had a date with the finest looking male specimen on campus, won't everyone on my hall be jealous! Especially Janie who says he is bad news, but she is the most jealous because he likes me and not her!! I can't wait to tell her!!

That afternoon my roommate and I quickly hit the mall and found the cutest outfit that would surely turn his head!! I just knew that this was true love and HE was the one for me! Just think, a college boyfriend! I thought back to high school and the guys that I had dated; they all seemed so childish compared to HIM. HE drove a red convertible and wore the hippest clothes and spoke in such a way, I was in HEAVEN! Believe it or not. I now had a college boyfriend, we could go to games together, take the same classes, eat in the cafeteria together, go home on the weekends to each other's houses and meet each other's friends. It was going to be a wonderful college experience... so romantic! And when we graduate, we can find a job in the same town or go on to graduate school together, get apartments in the same complex, and one day get married! Have two children and of course, that red convertible. We will have a wonderful life together!

HE picked me up in the red convertible at 9 o'clock sharp, dressed so fine and drove us out to that restaurant by the lake. HE ordered our meals with such ease and I was feeling so good. HE said that it had been a stressful day and wanted to unwind and have a good time, so HE ordered a drink from the bar. I have always shied away from alcohol in high school and I knew that it was bad but I didn't want him to think that I was uncool, so I said I would have what HE was having. HE looked pleased. Dinner was great, the conversation was even better and He was the Best! I kinda lost track of the number of drinks HE had over dinner but HE acted ok and I figured HE was mature enough and could handle it. Besides, HE liked me and nothing was going to happen tonight... to us. HE just said something about going to the lake and watching the sun rise... this night will never end.

It's now five days later. I just awoke from a coma. They said that He did not make it through the accident. They said something about the red convertible hitting a tree and HIM being crushed completely... no recognition of his face. They said his blood alcohol level was .3, I can't believe it. All my dreams about the future... my college boyfriend... dates to the football games... what a wonderful life.

Voice students place

Only four students are sent to the final round, and Albritton placed third in the final round for sophomore women. This year, approximately 375 participated in the auditions.

Both Albritton and Kemp, who attend the Raymond Campus on music scholarships, are students of vocal instructor, Mary Lou Lott.

ASG Roundup

by Jennifer Mahaffey

It is yet another exciting chapter in the story of 36 ambitious student leaders. Since the last issue of this paper, ASG has been exceedingly busy. Open Hall, during Homecoming Week, was extra special because of an ASG resolution passed to allow students without validated Hinds I.D. to participate in Open Hall activities. All were thrilled with the outcome of "Club Carnivale" sponsored by the Associated Student Government with participation from various clubs on campus. We would, at this time, like to take the opportunity to thank those clubs.

Recently, in the ASG Senate meetings we have been addressing several issues brought to us by both administration and students. One of the hottest topics of discussion was the present Financial Aid requirements, probation, and suspension policies. ASG recommended that these policies' standards should be raised. Another hot topic was the scholastic probation and suspension requirements which were also voted upon and recommended to be raised. ASG also voted on changing the "repeat a course" policy and providing for a smoke-free environment here on campus.

These newly passed resolutions will be recommended to the District Student Affairs in hopes of being incorporated into the 1992-93 Student Handbook. If you would like to provide input on these issues, please contact your club, organization, or residence hall Senator.

You may also visit your ASG Vice-President and Secretary in the ASG office located in the basement of Denton Gym or your ASG President in the Dean of Students' office located on the second floor of the Student Union Building.

New group forms

The Campus Christian Fellowship is a newly formed organization on the Rankin Campus of Hinds Community College devoted to the goal of encouraging a Christ-Awareness among student.

In many cases, students who were active in their church youth groups throughout junior high and high school suddenly find that they've "aged-out" once they enter college and that the church may not offer as many activities for their age group. CCF aims to help fill this area by giving students a chance to fellowship with other Christians at the weekly meetings, by offering the love and support that can only be found among those who love the Lord and by providing activities that encourage the students to share their talents and abilities with others.

The Campus Christian Fellowship meets on a weekly basis, Thursday nights, 8:00, for one hour. The meeting includes prayer, fellowship and messages shared by a guest speaker. Plans are being made for several upcoming events including some special concerts and mission opportunities.

Flag Presentation - A United States Flag was presented to Dr. James Pettigrew, assistant dean of the Rankin Campus, by the Secondary HOSA Chapter of the Rankin Campus. ## S.A.D.D. Chapter enjoys successful week of events

S.A.D.D. is definitely not sad anymore! We are on our way to new and better things! During Alcohol Awareness Week, October 13-18, S.A.D.D. participated in different functions on and off campus.

On October 15, a carnival was sponsored by ASG and S.A.D.D. displayed a booth to join in with the festivities. All in all, we had a great time. On the 16th, S.A.D.D. was invited to the Universities Center to show the students a video called "Reach Out" which explained the outcome of drinking and driving. Also on the following day, S.A.D.D. was invited to Graves Hall to speak to the residents on the same issue.

Last but not least, if any of you happened to see all the white faces around campus on the last day of Alcohol Awareness Week, it wasn't because of some weird beauty tip, and we were not trying to collect candy by trick or treating! The white faces were the results of Ghost Out. During Ghost Out, participants painted their faces white and walked around campus to hand out slips of paper to other students to let them know that "Every 23 minutes someone is killed in a alcohol related accident."

All in all, Alcohol Awareness Week was a big success and we sincerely hope that we helped someone to understand that drinking and driving is not the way to go.

Hinds and Co-Lin battle to 20-20 tie

The South Division leader in the JUCO league was still undetermined as Hinds Community College and Copiah-Lincoln battled to a 20-20 tie leaving each team with a 3-0-1 record in division play.

In overall performance the Eagles had a 4-1-2 record, while the Wolves of Co-Lin have a 4-2-1 record. Following these two teams are the Bulldogs of Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College with an overall 4-3 record and a division record of 3-1.

Tony Smith was first to score for the Wolves in the first period on a 5-yard run with Greg Scoggins adding the point after.

Scoggins added 3 more points to the board with 9:35 to play in the second period on a 36-yard field goal giving Co-Lin a 10-0 lead. With 2:27 remaining in the period Hinds' Albert Sweet made a 55-yard run on a pass play from Clay Hudson to put the Eagles on the board and Shane Martin added the point after.

During third period action both kickers missed field goals. Martin missed a 32-yard attempt for Hinds while Scoggins missed a 30-yard attempt for Co-Lin. The Eagles second TDY came with 3:28 in the period when a Co-Lin guard missed Hinds' Zachary Crockett who broke loose for a 80-yard touchdown run. Shane Martin made the point after and Hinds took a 14-10 lead.

With only 2 minutes off the clock in the fourth quarter Co-Lin's Tim Price connected on a 17-yard pass to Scot Harris for another TD and Greg Scoggins added the point after giving the Wolves a 17-14 edge. The Eagles made their last touchdown with 5:23 remaining in the game when Kenny Miller made a 65-yard interception return. Martin's point after attempt was no good and Hinds had a 20-17 lead. The Wolves tied the game with 1:13 to play when Greg Scoggins made a 36-yard field goal.

Hinds rips JCJC

Defeating another South Division opponent the Hinds Community College Eagles captured win number give with a 27-6 victory over the Bobcats of Jones Junior College and moved to an overall record of 5-1-2 and 4-0-1 in division play.

The Bobcats, coming in the game with a 2-5 overall record and 0-4 in division play, were first to score on a 3-yard run by Kevin Winfrey. The point after attempt was blocked by Hinds' Kenny Miller. Shortly after the Jones TD Hinds' quarterback Clay Hudson connected on a 47-yard pass play to Albert Sweet for the Eagles first touchdown. Shane Martin added the point after and the Eagles took a 7-6 lead.

The Eagles scored again during the second period after Hinds' Eric Johnson recovered a Jones fumble at the 25 and on the next play Zachary Crockett carried the ball in for the TD while Martin again added the point after as 13:23 remained in the first half. One last attempt to score by Hinds in the first period was with 2:33 remaining when Shane Martin missed a 31-yard field goal.

Eagles defeat Bulldogs

It had the tension of a Saint's game Saturday night, October 26, in Joe Renfro Stadium at Hinds Community College and with 23 seconds remaining on the clock, the Mississippi Gulf Coast Bulldogs were leading the Hinds Eagles 10-6.

However, the ball was on the Gulf Coast 1-yard line, and that was all Hinds' Zachary Crockett needed as he exploded through the Gulf Coast defense to give the Eagles their needed touchdown. The extra point was added by Shane Martin and Hinds took a 13-10 lead.

Donald Moffett returned the kickoff to Gulf Coast 55 yards to the Hinds 23, and with five seconds remaining in the game the Bulldogs lined up for a 40-yard field goal attempt that would have tied the game. Gulf Coast's holder, Jessie Moore, attempted to run the ball after a bad snap but was stopped at the 18-yard line as the clock ran out.

The win for the Eagles gave them the South Division title and a playoff appearance for the fifth straight year under coach Gene Murphy. The Eagles move to a 5-0-1 division record and a 6-1-2 overall record. The Bulldogs fell to 4-2-0 in division and 5-4 overall.

Gulf Coast scored early in the first period on a 30-yard field goal by David Beauges. Hinds' kicker, Shane Martin, put the Eagles on the board in the first period with 2 field goals, 22 and 31-yards to put Hinds ahead 6-3.

The Bulldogs took the lead in the third period with 5:16 remaining in the period when Byron Allen made a 65-yard run for the touchdown. David Beaugez made the point after and Gulf Coast took a 10-6 lead.

HCC crushes Coahoma Tigers

The Eagles finished their regular season of play Saturday, November 2, at Clarksdale with a 29-8 win over the Tigers of Coahoma Community College. The loss was the 67th consecutive loss for the Tigers but the Eagles with a 7-1-2 overall record for the season and their fifth straight appearance in the state playoffs.

Coahoma led Hinds at the half 8-7 with both scores coming in the first period. Hinds' Zachary Crockett made a 3-yard run with 8:10 to play in the period and Shane Martin made the PAT. With 3:20 remaining on the clock, Coahoma's Reginald Gibson returned a blocked field goal attempt by Hinds' Shane Martin 88 yards for the Tigers one and only touchdown. The Tigers then went for the 2-point conversion on a Michael Brown pass to Jermaine Grant.

During third period action Hinds' Earnest Marshall made a 44-yard touchdown on a pass play from Clay Hudson. The same play worked again for the Eagles to make a 2-point conversion and put the Eagles up 15-8. With 1:19 remaining in the period, Hinds' quarterback Clay Hudson couldn't find a receiver, so he carried for the 10-yard run and another Hinds touchdown. Martin again added the point after and the gap widened to 22-8 for the Eagles.

About midway through the fourth quarter Hinds quarterback Marcus Riddley completed a 7-yard pass to Jabari White for the Eagles final touchdown of the game. Martin added the point after and the Eagles had their seventh win of the season.

Hinds had 220 yards rushing and 173 passing while Coahoma had 2-yards rushing and 113 yards passing.

Eagles stopped; Trojans advance

In another bid for the State Community/Junior College football championship, the Hinds Community College Eagles lost out in the first round of state playoffs as the Mississippi Delta Trojans took a 24-21 win over the Hinds Eagles.

This marked the fifth straight year for the Hinds team to make it to the state playoffs as they finished the season with a 7-2-2 record. Mississippi Delta moved to a 9-2 record and will face the Rangers of Northwest Community College next Saturday for the championship title game in Senatobia. The Rangers are 10-0-1 for the season and ranked number 2 in the nation.

Hinds kept the Trojans from scoring during the first period while the Eagles managed to score a TD on a 16-yard run by Zachary Crockett with 38 seconds remaining in the period. Shane Martin added the point after. Martin had attempted a 47-yard field goal earlier in the period but missed.

During the second period the Trojans had their turn at the goal line as Bill Daves passed 15-yards to Adarryll Ward for the touchdown. Bruce Walker added the point after and at the half the Eagles and the Trojans were tied 7-7.

In the third period the Eagles were unable to add any points to the board but the Trojans added 2 more TD's to their side. Delta's Adarryll Ward again scored on a 9-yard run and Walker again added the point after. With 2:29 left in the third, Virgil Gardner carried for 1-yard for the touchdown and Walker made the extra point giving the Trojans a 21-7 lead.

During the fourth quarter the Eagles rallied and with 7:46 to play Zachary Crockett carried 1-yard for another Eagle touchdown. Martin added the point after and the gap narrowed. However, with 1:41 to play Mississippi Delta's Bruce Walker added a 23-yard field goal to the board giving the Trojans the edge. With 31 seconds remaining to play Hinds' Clay Hudson passed 6-yards to Earnest Marshall for Hinds' last TD of the season. Martin added the point after. The Eagles tried an on-side kick but the ball didn't go far enough and the Trojans took over as the clock ran out on the 1991 season for the Hinds Eagles.

Hinds had 45 rushes for 159 yards while Delta had 38 for 158 and Hinds had 129 yards passing while Delta had 183.

Athletic program wins award

Millsaps College, the University of Mississippi, Mississippi University for Women and Hinds Community College have done the best job over recent years at graduating student athletes, statistics show.

Those state colleges and universities were recipients Monday of the David M. Halbrook Awards for Academic Achievement Among Athletes held in conjunction with the Mississippi Association of Colleges' annual meeting in Olive Branch.

The awards program is unique in that it is one, if not the first, awards program that rewards institutions that do a good job of graduating athletes. It is also unique because the program includes a school's total athletic program, not just the more popular sports.

The Halbrook Awards for Academic Achievement Among Athletes is an annual awards program for institutions that excel in graduating their student athletes with skill, training, and knowledge levels that will ensure that they can compete in the business and professional world. Approximately 33 public and independent colleges and universities participate in the Halbrook Awards Program. Annually, the David M. Halbrook Award for Academic Achievement Among Athletes goes to the college or university that graduates the highest percentage of athletes over a five-year period, or in the case of the community colleges, a two-year period.

Millsaps College was named the winner in the Independent College Division for graduating 93.2 percent of its student athletes over the last five years. The University of Mississippi was the recipient of the award in the Men's Category of the Public University Division, having graduated 66.5 percent of its student athletes during the award period. In the Women's Category of the Public University Division, Mississippi University for Women was recognized for having 81.4 percent of its student athletes to graduate. Hinds Community College was the award winner in the Community College Division, having graduated 78.3 percent of its student athletes during the last two years.

"Programs of this type have the potential for successfully communicating a college or university's message that the goal of the student athlete should be to achieve high academic standards as well as excellence in athletics," said Ann Homer Cook, associate commissioner of higher education in Mississippi. Ms. Cook also serves as the secretary/treasurer of the Mississippi Association of Colleges.

WINS AWARD — Hinds Community College Athletic Director, Rene Warren and Hinds President, Dr. Clyde Muse, display the trophy for the coveted David M. Halbrook Award for Academic Achievement Among Athletes. Hinds, winning in the Community College Division, has graduated 73.8 percent of its student athletes during the last two years. Hinds won this award in 1987, with a graduation rate of 88 percent among its athletes. Hinds also received the Mississippi Association of Community and Junior colleges "All Sports Award" for achieving the best overall record in all sports for the 1990-91 year.

MSU's Ron Polk speaks at banquet December 12

Ron Polk, head coach at Mississippi State University, will speak at a banquet introducing Hinds Community College's Project Baseball. "Talking Baseball with Ron Polk," will be held Thursday, December 12 at 7 PM in Mayo Physical Education Building on the Raymond Campus of Hinds. All proceeds from this $100 a plate dinner will go to develop Project Baseball, which is designed to help improve the quality of baseball in the community.

lege, the programs will place special emphasis on the 12-16 age group and will include instructional clinics for players and coaches; and mini-camps.

The project would also feature a high school "game of the week" during the spring season; an all-star exhibition series; and "talent searches" in the community, where players with great ability will be helped to develop their running, throwing, and other skills through Project Baseball's programs.

good but then again in the fourth game we could have played better. We have got to improve before we get to our conference games.'

The next home game for the Bulldogs and Lady Bulldogs won't be until December 9 when they host Co-Lin at Utica.

The win gives Hinds a 3-0 record in the South Division while East Central Moves to a 2-4 overall record and a 0-3 record in the South Division.

With 8:01 to play Martin attempted a 34-yard field goal but missed. He has also attempted a 47-yarder midway through the first period but missed that one also. Ironically, on a kickoff to East Central during the game Martin put a 50-yarder right between the goal post.

Co-op jobs open new avenues

Students having business at HCC's Financial Aid office have probably noticed the presence of the Co-Operative Education Office which shares a waiting room with Financial Aid in the Raymond campus administration building. Some of those students have also found a way to supply their own financial aid while enhancing their future career opportunities and even earning college credit in the process.

Students meeting minimum qualifications are linked with area businesses seeking trainable employees for jobs which relate to major fields of study offered at HCC. The Co-Operative Education program is intended to benefit the student and employer, and with its designed-in flexibility, provides a wide range of scheduling options.

The program's success rate can be measured on at least three different levels. Employers have reported that their Co-op employees have been valuable additions to their workforce, the students are able to apply job-site knowledge to the classroom for better understanding of their chosen major, and they have discovered that job placement and career advancement opportunities are greater for successful co-op participants.

To participate in the program, a student must declare a major, complete at least one full semester at HCC maintain a 2.0 GPA, submit at least two character references and two Teacher Evaluation Forms when applying to the program. In addition, the student must register for Co-op at the beginning of the semester.

There are two different approaches to scheduling: the Alternating Plan — the student either works full-time or attends classes full-time in alternate semesters until graduation — and the Parallel Plan — which allows the student to attend classes part-time and work part-time around their class schedule. Students, in either case, are paid for their hours worked and are evaluated by their employers on their job performance.

Types of jobs available to students under the Co-op program vary each semester, according to the needs of the business community. According to Ms. Bridgette McPherson, of the Co-op office, not all students can benefit from the program. "Some students think that we have jobs for every major offered at Hinds," she said. "That's just not possible with all of the majors, but Clark Henderson, who's in charge of the program, spends a lot of time recruiting new businesses to participate."

She also explained that it is possible for students to develop a co-op contact with a local business, which then must be approved by the office, and McPherson adds, "Sometimes businesses will call us and volunteer because they have heard good things about the program."

The 1991 Fall Semester produced 22 new co-op placements. This number does not include previously-placed students who are continuing in the program. The number of applicants should increase for the Spring Semester due to the large number of students who will have completed a semester and declared a major. The Co-operative Education office is open to students Monday-Friday from 8-4:30 (closed during the noon hour).

In addition, the office shares space with the Student Placement Program, directed by Ms. Jane Moore, which helps students obtain jobs not related to their field of study. These positions do not qualify for the Co-op program and do not offer college credit, or require that students register at the beginning of the semester. Jobs vary in type, pay, and length of employment. Interested students may inquire during office hours.

Art Club makes trip to Texas

The HCC Art Club has stayed busy earning money to help defray the cost of their trip to Dallas-Fort Worth. The trip was November 14 with a stop in Longview, TX at the Country School of East Mountain. The bus then took them to Fort Worth to the Kimball, Modern Art, and the Amon Carter museums. While in Dallas they visited the Museum of Science and History and the Dallas Museum of Art.

On the way back to Jackson on November 16, the club stopped in Marshall, TX to visit Marshall Pottery, a mass production pottery company.

Their fundraisers included soliciting donations which automatically registered you for a chance to win a print of either 'After Fall, Before Frost' a watercolor painting of Hinds instructor, Bob Allan Dunaway, or a print of instructor, Michael Hataway's 'The Ruins of Windsor'.

Another fundraiser the Art Club is involved in is the making and selling of "Raku" ceramic pendants, bracelets, earrings, pins, and bolos. The handmade ceramic pieces are each unique works of art that go through a special firing called raku. The jewelry makes a great inexpensive gift and will support the Art Club with their trip to Dallas.

Miracles do happen, but you must believe

by Sonia Burlison

"Insurmountable odds." These are the words that HCC freshman Stacy Love uses to describe the trials that she has faced in the past four years. 'Miracle' is the word you will use after hearing her story.

In February 1988, she and three other friends went joyriding. Three of the girls, including Stacy, had been drinking all day. The sober girl asked to drive. The driver refused and later pulled out in front of a log truck. The other girls were treated and released. Stacy remained at the hospital. She survived for five months in a coma, with doctors sure that she would never be the same. They were sure that Stacy would be a vegetable.

Sometime between the fifth and sixth month she awoke and later responded to communication. She began using a handmade board with letters on it to communicate with others. Soon she was transferred from a hospital in Jackson to a rehabilitation division of the Children's Hospital in New Orleans. Three days a week she went through speech therapy, physical therapy, and occupational therapy. Within a year and half Stacy had already gone back to school and completed the credits she needed to graduate, only a few months after her class graduated.

Stacy walked with the class of 1990. Because the graduating class consisted of over 300 students, the audience was asked to hold their applause until everyone had walked. But as Stacy crossed the platform and accepted her diploma, a crowd of more than 7,000 people stood in a standing ovation.

Now Stacy spends her time studying in her dorm room at Hinds. She continues to amaze her family, friends, and even doctors as she daily progresses. She understands that everything happens for a reason.

"My life has led me down many bumpy roads...I learned the frailty of life...and that loneliness is not the worst thing in the world."

Stacy, a bright and witty student, likes to spend her spare time with her friends enjoying college life. She also enjoys attending the BSU on the campus.

Entertainment Review

by Cole Cabler

Two films that have recently hit the big screen are The Fisher King, starring Robin Williams and Jeff Bridges and Frankie and Johnny, starring Michelle Pfeiffer and Al Pacino.

The Fisher King stars Williams in top form as a homeless/insane person who believes that he is on a mission from God to retrieve the Holy Grail which he believes is located in a house in the upper East side of New York City. Jeff Bridges was a morning talk show host on a radio station. Bridges was considered the best until he gave some bad advice to a caller and that is what brings him and Williams together.

This film is hilarious and at the same time is moving. A definite movie for a date.

Frankie and Johnny is a movie based on the play Frankie and Johnny at the Claire D Lune. Pfeiffer plays the best role that I believe I have seen her in. She plays a waitress in New York who is through with love. Pacino has just been released from prison and become a cook in the diner where she works. The whole movie is based on their relationship and has superb acting by both Pfeiffer and Pacino. It starts off a little slow but by the end you will be filled with emotions, happy and sad.

Rankin PTK holds fall initiation October 8

Alpha Omicron Omega Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa on the Rankin Campus held its fall initiation on October 8 and the guest speaker was William T. "Dale" Patterson.

A graduate of the Citadel and the University of Maryland, Patterson is the Managing Director of Morgan Keegan, an investment brokerage company in Jackson. Very active in community affairs, Patterson is president of the Board of Directors for Willowood Development Center and serves on Teen Aid of Mississippi, the Mississippi Baptist Medical Center Advisory Council, the Mississippi Economic Council and many others. He also served in the army during the Vietnam War. While a major, he received the Bronze Star.

Speaking on "Being Different," Patterson shared his personal experiences which began by his riding the garbage truck to school each day in first grade. He pointed out that students must, however, have a specific goal and keep that goal in focus. This focus makes one different, and it insures that a person gets what he wants out of life.

Hinds Choir presents annual Christmas Concert

Abney, a sophomore accounting major on the Raymond Campus of HCC, was recently named to Who's Who Among Students in American Community and Junior Colleges, and was also named HCC's Outstanding Student for 1991-92. With Abney is HCC president, Dr. Clyde Muse.

Budget cuts reduce number of productions

Budget cuts have reduced the Hinds Speech and Drama Department's theatre season from its traditional three offerings to two and forced the department to withdraw plans to participate in HCC's annual "Mississippi in the Arts Week" which follows Spring Break '92.

Director Denise Halbach, anticipating budget cuts, had hoped to stage "The Importance of Being Earnest" as the fall semester entry on the Hinds theatre season, followed by a musical and a night of one-act plays (a low-budget production) in order to preserve the three-bill season.

In addition to its October 30 - November 2 run at HCC's Brooks Theatre, "The Importance of Being Earnest" schedule also included road trips to Jackson Preparatory School and Forest Hill High School, a practice which may not be practical under future budgets.

Current plans for the second, and final, theatre season offering, will have the Lendon Players stage "The Fantasticks" during the spring semester. Halbach plans a few surprises for those who are familiar with the time-honored musical.

"I have some different ideas about how the play ought to be done. I stage it differently from any version I've ever seen," explained Halbach.

"The Fantasticks" is the longest-running musical in the history of theatre, opening off-Broadway May 30, 1960, and still going strong. The play, with book and lyrics by Tom Jones and music by Harvey Schmidt, has roles for six males (four singing and two non-singing) and two females (one singing, one strong on dance movement).

Auditions are tentatively scheduled for the first Tuesday following resumption of classes in January and Halbach notes that singers should come ready to sing. "You'll need to have a prepared audition piece — 16-32 bars — from memory. 'I have a sheet of audition suggestions in my office for anybody who wants to come by,' Halbach said.

As with all HCC theatre productions, auditions are open to everyone. Aspiring actors do not have to be enrolled in theatre Classes or be members of the school drama club, The Lendon Players. HCC productions in the past have even featured 'guest' cast members — people not enrolled at Hinds. As usual, craft and technical positions will need to be filled.

AD Nursing Faculty Attend State Convention

Associate Degree nursing faculty and students recently attended the sixth annual Mississippi Organization for Associate Degree Nursing (MOADN) Convention on the Mississippi Gulf Coast.

The theme of this year's convention was Caring, Commitment, Competence. The keynote address Caring Commitment, and Competence: Current Issues in Nursing was presented by Kay Bender RN, MS, Chief of Health Officers Staff, Mississippi State Board of Health. Participants enjoyed various activities from water aerobics to focus sessions on Patient Teaching Strategies, Legal Implications and Court Survival Skills, Continuing Education, and an AIDS Panel of Nurses and Patients.

Zig Ziglar Seminar for Harris Scholarship

Internationally known motivational specialist Zig Ziglar has been holding Jobie Harris up before the world for years, as a person who had a great influence on his life.

On January 21, Ziglar will have a chance to do more than praise Harris, a long-time retired Hinds instructor, when he presents a motivational talk in Jackson's City Auditorium.

The seminar, which is one of Ziglar's most popular ones, is entitled, "Qualities of Success," and will cost $40 per person. It will be held at the City Auditorium, Tuesday, January 21 at 1:30 p.m.

Prior to the seminar at the Jackson City Auditorium Ziglar will present a free 45-minute seminar to Hinds students, faculty and staff in Cain Hall Auditorium at 10:00 a.m.

Any Hinds students or faculty who wish to attend the seminar at the Jackson Auditorium may do so at a reduced rate of $25 but must have their Hinds I.D. card when purchasing tickets.

Ziglar will donate the proceeds of the seminar to a scholarship fund honoring Harris and his wife, Jim-El, who befriended him when he attended Hinds in 1943.

Harris remembers Ziglar as a young boy who walked into his high school history class that year, stating flatly that he was only there because he had to take history and he had no interest in it and saw no point to it.

"After that first class day," Jobie recalls, "that boy said he knew what he was going to do. He was going to major in history." Ziglar became a man who has great inspirational impact on millions of people all over the world, and later told Jobie that the semester of history turned him around completely in his philosophy about the world. He pointed out to Jobie how his own present ideas were formed during that semester in his classroom.

Ziglar states, "I am honored to join with the Hinds Community (Seminar, cont. on page 4)

Miss Hinds Pageant February 12

Wednesday, February 12, has been set aside as the date of the Miss Hinds Community College Pageant that will begin at 7:30 p.m. in Cain Hall Auditorium on the Raymond Campus.

Applications for the pageant can be picked up at pageant director Anna Bee's office in the Women's Gymnasium or at the public relations office in the Student Union Building. Applicants must be 18 to 25 years of age, and the deadline for applying is January 31.

A panel of out-of-town judges, approved by the Miss Mississippi Pageant, will be present to select the 1992 Miss Hinds. The winner will then go on to represent the College in Vicksburg this July in the Miss Mississippi Pageant.

The Miss Hinds Pageant is an official preliminary to the Miss Mississippi Pageant, with the winner competing in the Miss America pageant in Atlantic City, New Jersey.

Contestants in the Miss Hinds Pageant will be judged on talent

(with a limit of two minutes and fifty seconds), interview, which will be on the afternoon of the pageant, swimsuit and evening gown competition. According to Mrs. Bee, "From Atlantic City, the scoring will consist of 40% talent, 30% interview, 15% evening gown, and 15% swimsuit.

The new Miss Hinds will be crowned by Hinds President, Dr. Clyde Muse, and the winner of the 1991 Miss Hinds Pageant, Valli Penn.

Master of Ceremonies for the Miss Hinds Pageant will be Alon Bee, Jr., and Mrs. Vashti Muse will be the judges' hostess. Circle K will be in charge of decorations and staging.

The admission will be $2 with a student I.D. and $4 for non-students.

Hinds has long been noted for its beauty pageants, being the first junior college to send a contestant to the Miss Mississippi Pageant. This year will be Hinds' thirty-third consecutive year to participate in the Miss Mississippi Pageant.

The Reason for the Season

Admire a sea of Christmas carols that are performed by anyone who has ever cut an album, there is a reason. Tucked carefully in each commercial that advertises a product promising to make the season magically perfect, you may find that reason. Somewhere in the moral of all of those television Christmas specials, you will find the reason.

There is a reason. A reason to deck the halls and be jolly. A reason for the world to be joyous. If you look beyond the immense facade of Santa Claus and his merry little pad in the North Pole, you just might find that wonderful reason. For Christmas is so much more than decorated trees or mistletoe. So much deeper than flying reindeer or elves.

It is a celebration. A birthday celebration. It is a time to think about a gift that was given to each of us so many centuries before we were ever born. The gift of love and life. The gift of a second chance. Christmas is a time to celebrate the birth of our savior, Jesus Christ.

So often we take for granted the precious life that we have. We live our lives day to day and tend to forget to pray and to give thanks for our friends and families. This is the opportunity we have to thank each other through gift-giving.

As you give and receive gifts this Christmas, remember the most perfect gift ever given on the first Christmas day ... Jesus Christ.

"Presidential Speaking"

by
Dr. Clyde Muse

Congratulations to the Hinds Community College Eagle Football team for finishing the regular season with a 7-2-2 record. Because of this excellent record and the South Division Championship, the Eagles were invited to participate in the Texas Junior College Shrine Bowl in Tyler, Texas, on December 7. This provided an excellent opportunity for another outstanding performance by our football team, band, H-steppers, cheerleaders, and Ernie the Eagle.

As the basketball season begins, we look forward to another successful year for our women's and men's basketball teams. Most of these games will be played on the Utica Campus, and I encourage all locations to support our basketball teams.

The Hinds Community College Athletic Program has received numerous awards this past year. Hinds was presented the "All Sports Award" trophy for achieving the best overall record in all sports for 1990-91. This award was presented by the Mississippi Association of Community and Junior Colleges. Also, Hinds received the coveted "David M. Halbrook Award for Academic Achievement Among Athletes" trophy. The Halbrook Awards Program is unique in that it is one, if not the first, awards program that rewards institutions that do a good job in graduating athletes in not just the popular sports, but in the school's total athletic program.

This Christmas brings an end to this season's performance of these groups, as well as your performance for the first semester of 1991-92. The semester is memory now—happy for some, frustrating for others. It would be wonderful if we could maintain, throughout the semester, the enthusiasm with which we began.

Semester exams are a measure of how well you have learned the materials covered in the semester. The time of reckoning is now, but with daily preparation you have provided yourself the skills and information needed. If you have not arranged and paced your schedule for daily preparation and study this semester, try to improve during the spring.

Now most of you are preparing to return to your homes for the brief vacation between semesters. Work will occupy some, travel may be in your plans, and time with family and friends will help make future memories. Christmas has a special and different meaning to each of us. Whatever your plans, have a safe and happy holiday. Bring a renewed excitement to begin the second semester. If your plans do not include returning to Hinds, we wish for you great success in your chosen endeavors.

Whether your plans include continuing your education or entering the work force after leaving Hinds, I would encourage you to complete the requirements for an associate degree. Studies indicate that individuals with an associate degree have a distinct advantage over their most frequent competition, high school graduates, for most entry level positions. Income, opportunities to obtain further education, increased employment opportunities, and job security are a few of the benefits to the associate degree graduate.

Students Invited to Study Abroad

See Stonehenge, feel the vibrations of Big Ben, hear Mass at St. Paul's amid the glorious architecture of Christopher Wren, visit the Hippodrome, stand by Samuel Johnson's grave, and maybe get a glimpse of Princess Di at Sloane Square.

The British Studies Program, through Hinds Community College, offers a residential summer session in London, during July and August each year. Program coordinator, Britt Brown, Raymond Campus philosophy instructor, invites any who would enjoy studying in London, and having travel access to such places as Paris, Amsterdam, Brussels, Scotland, Cambridge, Oxford, Bath, Canterbury...to join the group.

In addition to having thirty courses in any discipline to choose from, you will meet famous scholars and take interesting field trips. According to Brown, there is also ample free time for independent travel.

Registration is open from January until May. If you would like to make an application or have more information, please contact Brown at 857-3366, between 12:30 and 3:00 p.m. weekdays.

Instructors of these students are Ann Eaves and Peggy Blackwell.

Non Traditional Students Win!

Hinds Community College is a college for all people. This was proven at the recent Hinds Community College Persuasive Speaking Contest.

The speech department on the HCC Raymond Campus sponsors the contest twice a year. Among approximately 450 students in 25 Oral Communications 1113 classes, 21 students participated. Judges included Mickey Roth, Barbara Nickey, and Denise Halbach, all HCC teachers.

A most interesting thing happened this year. Of the five finalists, only one was a "traditional student," Drew Herndon.

Catina McCollum, a blind student, attended Mississippi School for the Blind. While there, she was involved in every club she qualified for and held the office of student body president for three years. She graduated as valedictorian of her senior class and came to Hinds to study childcare. She plans to transfer to the Utica campus in the Spring.

Krishna Rao came to the United States in September 1989. She knew very little English and learned the language by experience. She enrolled at Hinds in January 1990 and will complete her stay in December. She plans to transfer to Georgia Tech in the Spring and is studying Computer Engineering.

Mala Harris is a non-traditional married student who is the mother of 3 elementary age children. She is a sophomore majoring in English education and would someday like to teach on the community college level. She is the daughter-in-law of Jim El Harris, former head of the English Department and Jobie Harris, a former coach and teacher here at Hinds.

Lam Nguyen is a deaf student majoring in Microcomputers. He attended Louisiana School for the Deaf in Baton Rouge where he graduated salutatorian. He was Speech Club President and Senior Class President. He served as president of the Deaf Club here at Hinds last year. He plans on going on to Gallaudet University in Washington, D.C.

Each finalist received a certificate and the winners were presented trophies. Lam Nguyen won first place and Mala Harris came in second. Congratulations to all the finalists!

Hinds' Crockett is a Living, breathing ad for Mississippi jucos

reprinted from The Clarion-Ledger SPORTS,
by Rick Cleveland, Executive Sports Editor

(This article ran prior to the Texas Shrine Bowl)

Zachary Crockett remembers what he was thinking the first time he headed from south Florida to Hinds Community College to continue his education and football career.

"I thought, 'Oh man, this is going to be like high school all over again,'" Crockett said Wednesday. "I was wrong."

Lesson number one of Crockett's continuing education: The quality of junior college football in Mississippi is somewhere between high school and Division I, but it's far, far closer to Division I than high school.

"It's like a lower level of Division I," Crockett said. "Most of the players were recruited by Division I. Many would be playing now at Division I schools if not for their grades."

Take Crockett, for example. (Virtually every college in the country would like to do just that.) He was one of the nation's most highly recruited backs out of high school in Pompano Beach, FL. He eventually signed with the Florida Gators, but a discrepancy in his college entrance test score caused him to be ineligible there.

"I had a chance of going to another school and sitting out or going to junior college and playing," Crockett said. "I chose to come here, and I've never regretted it for a second."

In this, his sophomore season, Crockett rushed for 1,120 yards and is one of the prime reasons the Eagles will play Tyler Junior College Saturday in the Texas Shrine Bowl game.

Being 'recruited all over again'

Saturday, in fact, is a most busy day for Mississippi junior college football—a showcase for what the league has become. While Hinds plays in the Texas bowl, Northwest Community College of Senatobia will play Northeast Oklahoma for the junior college national championship in Tulsa's Mid America Bowl. Also, scores of college coaches will be in Booneville for the Mississippi junior college all-star football game.

They are all looking for a Randy Baldwin, who after a year at Holmes, helped Ole Miss to two bowl games. Or a Cortez Kennedy, who played at Northwest before going to Miami, before making millions with the Seattle Seahawks. Or a John Copeland, who played at Hinds last year and was a defensive leader at Alabama this season.

"I was talking to Alabama coaches and they said Copeland actually won three games for them this year," Murphy said.

"Think about that. Last year, he played for us. This year, he won three games for Alabama. And he's a defensive player at that."

Little wonder then, that Murphy can scarcely prepare for his bowl game because of the almost constant phone calls and visits from Division I coaches. Jeff Bower, for one, was at Hinds viewing film Wednesday.

"That's part of what we do, though," Murphy said. "We sell kids on the fact that if they come here, they'll have the chance to be recruited all over again, and if they're good enough, everybody in the country will know about them."

Out-of-state scholarships to be cut

Zach Crockett, just turned 19, is a walking, talking, touchdown-scoring advertisement for Mississippi junior college football. He's a shade under 6 feet, 3 inches. He weighs 225. He has a solid B-average at Hinds and will graduate this semester.

"I've never had one better," Murphy said. "He works as hard in practice as he does in the games. He works as hard in the classroom as he does on the field. He works as hard in the fourth quarter as he does in the first. He never complains. He just does his job and enjoys it. I'll miss him."

Crockett will miss Hinds and Murphy. "Coach is like my pop," Crockett said, smiling.

Both Murphy and Crockett are concerned that the quality of Mississippi junior college football, never higher than now, will slide. Out-of-state scholarships are being reduced from 16 to 10. Further cutbacks are being considered—on in-state scholarships, as well.

"Seems to me it ought to be more instead of less," Crockett said. "I hate to see people not get the opportunity I've had."

Apaches Stop Hinds Eagles 20-3

It was a gray day, not only for the weather, but also for the Hinds Community College Eagles as they fell to Tyler Junior College 20-3 in the 1991 Texas Shrine Bowl.

The Tyler Apaches' defense recorded eight sacks and held the Eagles' offense to only -37 yards rushing before the 5,000 fans at Tyler's Rose Stadium.

The victory ended Tyler's season with a 7-3-1 record while the Eagles moved to a 7-3-2 record.

Hinds quarterback Clay Hudson was chased all day and was only able to complete 14 of 33 pass attempts for 138 yards. He also had two interceptions and was sacked seven times while backup quarterback Marcus Riddle was sacked once.

Another damaging factor for the Hinds Eagles was that fullback Zachary Crockett, who is being recruited by Florida State, all the Southeastern Conference schools and Oklahoma, was only able to gain 10 yards on nine carries before being ejected in the third quarter for throwing a punch out at a Tyler defender.

Hinds head coach Gene Murphy commented, "They just beat us up front and they controlled the line of scrimmage. They really applied the pressure on Hudson and kept the heat on us."

Murphy praised the Eagles' defense by saying, "They played an intense four quarters and never quit."

The Eagles were the first to score in the game when the Apaches snapped the ball over the punter's head and the Eagles took over on the Tyler 44-yard line. A few plays later and with 6:48 remaining in the first period Shane Martin kicked a 24-yard field goal putting the Eagles ahead 3-0.

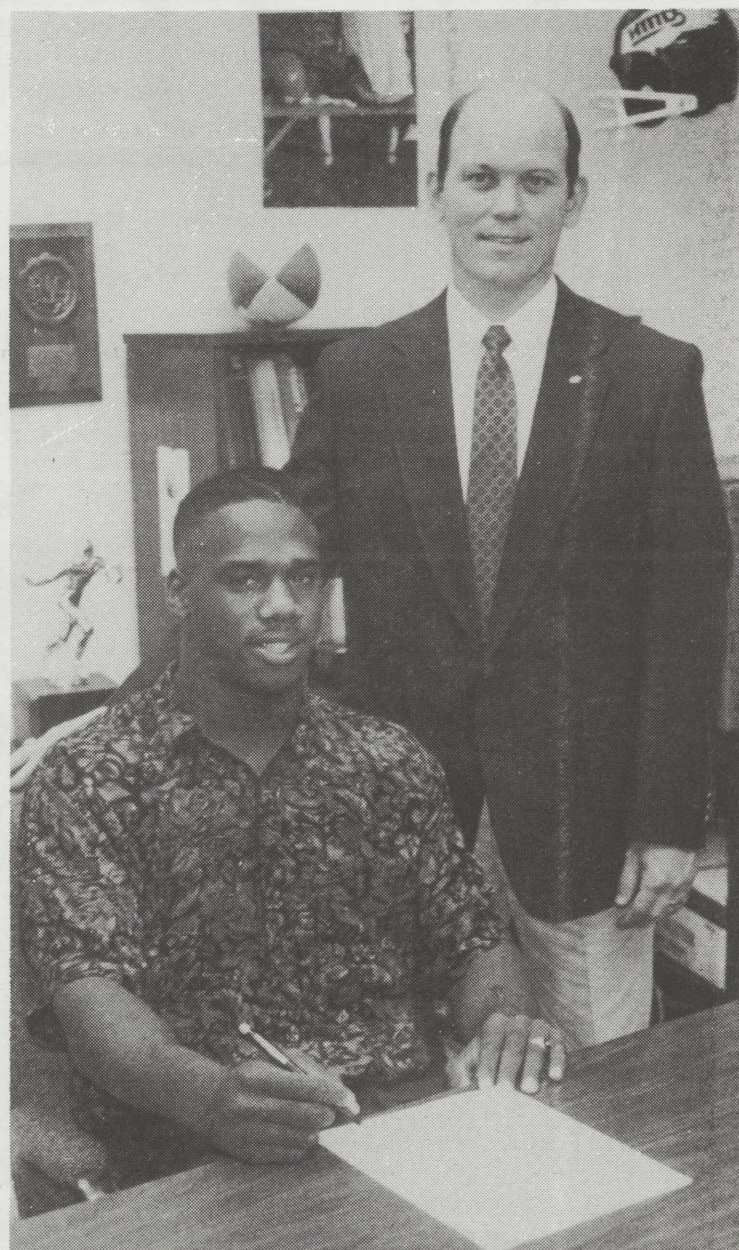

The Apaches made their first touchdown of the game with 7:17 to play before the half when Tony Taylor completed an 11-yard pass to Benjamin Bronson. The point was added by Bart Baldwin and the Apaches led at the half 7-3.

The Apaches, who had two touchdowns called back during the game due to penalties, were only able to score in the third period on a 35-yard field goal by Bart Baldwin that moved the Apaches ahead 10-3.

In fourth period action Baldwin again scored on a 27-yard field goal for TJC with 11:36 remaining to play. Just to add icing to the cake the Apaches made their second touchdown with 2:04 remaining when Chris Comer carried from the 5-yard line for the TD and Baldwin added the point after giving the Apaches the winning trophy for the seventh annual Texas Shrine Bowl.

CROCKETT SIGNS - Zachary Crockett, fullback for the Hinds Community College Eagles, from Pompano Beach, Florida has signed to play football with Florida State University and coach Bobby Bowden's Seminoles. Hinds head coach and assistant athletic director Gene Murphy look on as Crockett signs with Tallahassee University. In Crockett's 2 years at Hinds his rushing stats show he has 341 carries for 1521-yards and 17 touchdowns and in receiving he is 25 for 272-yards and 1 TD.

Hinds Receives 1.6 Million Gift

Properties valued at $1.675 million have been donated to Hinds Community College, marking the largest private sector gift ever received by the College.

John Caldwell, president of Contractors Material Company, Inc., presented the deeds of the properties to Dr. Clyde Muse, president of the College, in a press conference, on December 2.

The gift includes two properties formerly owned and operated by the Caldwell family, the Magna America Corporation building in Raymond, and the Airways Inn facility in Flowood.

In presenting the gift, Caldwell stated, "We wanted to give something back to the community that has been so good to us."

He said, "Hinds Community College is one of the premier community colleges in the nation. I am absolutely confident that these facilities will be put to the best use to benefit local communities."

"This is the most significant private sector gift ever given to the College," reported Dr. Muse.

The Raymond facility, located near the College's Raymond Campus, will be named the W.A. "Cotton" Caldwell, Sr., Building, in honor of the founder of Contractors Material Company, a pioneer Mississippi industrialist and former Mississippi Steel Corporation chairman. This property is an 18.6 acre site of Port Gibson Road, and includes a 240,670 square foot office and factory building.

The Airways Inn property is located on Highway 80 and Old Brandon Road. That acre site includes a restaurant, one office and three motel buildings, and a swimming pool, totalling 41,375 square feet.

How the College can best utilize the properties is being explored by administration and faculty.

"The Caldwells have set an important precedent with this gift," says Muse. "By entrusting these valuable assets to Hinds Community College, Mr. Caldwell confirms the confidence that the business and industry community has in our ability to deliver essential services to area citizens, particularly employers in need of a highly skilled, trained work force."

Caldwell stated that his brother, W.A. "Cotton" Caldwell, Jr., attended Hinds Agricultural High School in 1940-41, before entering the Service.

Mrs. America Pageant Applications Now Available

Does Hinds Community College have beautiful women? Yes, that's a statement, at least when you're talking about the "Mrs. Mississippi" title.

Four of the recent titleholders, and now the present Mrs. Mississippi, are Hinds Community College alumnae. Becky Coomes of Brandon is the 1991 Mrs. Mississippi and other recent winners have been Donna Russell of Brandon in 1985, Pamela Nail in 1987 and also Carla Nicks who took Pam Nail's place when she won the title of "Mrs. America" and went on to become the first American to win the international title of "Mrs. World." Donna Russell also won the title of "Mrs. America" during her tenure as "Mrs. Mississippi" and Carolyn Duren who became Mrs. Mississippi when Donna Russell won the Mrs. America title.

Well, what interest might this be to those married Hinds Community College women at this time? It's time to submit your application to enter the statewide pageant which will be held May 29-31 at the Metro Ramada Inn in Jackson.

The winner of this competition qualifies for the 1992 Miss America Pageant, which has been nationally televised since 1977. To qualify for the Mrs. Mississippi State Pageant, a contestant must be a U.S. citizen, a minimum of 18 years old, married for at least six months as of the entry date of the Mississippi State Pageant, and a resident of Mississippi for at least six months. And each applicant for "at large" entry must undergo a pre-screening by submitting an Official Application, a one page biography, and a recent full length photograph of herself.

Among the prizes to be awarded Mrs. Mississippi 1992 are a trip to the Mrs. America Pageant, a complete Image Building scholarship, a Pageant Preparation

Course, and a Photographic Modeling Course, as well as many other exciting prizes to be announced later. (Mrs. Mississippi usually receives awards, prizes, and gifts with an estimated value between five and ten thousand dollars.)

Under the direction of Doris Modjeski, the Mississippi State Pageant has produced two Mrs. Americas — Donna Russell of Brandon (1985) and Pamela Nail of Jackson (1987) and is the only state to have produced a Mrs. World. (Pamela Nail went on to capture the title of Mrs. World 1988, becoming the first American to win the international title.)

For additional information, contact Doris Modjeski at the Pageant office, P.O. Box 170, Edwards, Mississippi, 39066-0170, or call 852-2043. It is recommended that requests for applications be submitted as early as possible.

Articulation Agreement Offered

The state's eight universities and 15 community colleges have jointly produced an Articulation Agreement which will improve the transfer of community college credits to state universities.

The universities agreed upon a group of community college courses for 166 programs of study which they will accept for credit.

The agreement will be particularly helpful to community college students who have decided upon a major, but not a university. With the Articulation Agreement, a student can take courses in a particular program which will be mutually acceptable at all universities offering that major.

Furthermore, if a university wants to change a program it will be required to coordinate any change through the State Institutions of Higher Learning with the other universities that offer the same program.

Dr. David Durham, academic dean, Raymond Campus, helped to formulate the agreement. He says that the agreement will be revised annually.

HCC To Be Smokefree Workplace

Effective January 1, 1992, Hinds Community College will be a smokefree workplace.

The policy to establish Hinds as a smokefree workplace was approved by the Board of Trustees during their November Board meeting. The policy is designed to protect the employees and students who are nonsmokers from the passive inhalation of the cigarette smoke of those who continue to smoke.

The Board prohibits the smoking of cigarettes, cigars, and pipes, inside any facility owned and operated by Hinds Community College.

However, this policy does not include those residence halls specifically designated by the College president.

Hinds teacher and student honored by HEADWAE

Rebecca Tustain, associate degree nursing instructor at the Jackson Campus Nursing/Allied Health Center; and Julie Ann Abney, a Raymond Campus accounting major, were honored by the State Legislature as the Hinds Community College outstanding faculty member and outstanding student during its annual HEADWAE program in February.

The two joined faculty members and students who were selected by member institutions of the Mississippi Association of Colleges recognized during the fifth annual HEADWAE (Higher Education Appreciation Day, Working for Academic Excellence) program and luncheon on February 18, 1992.

Tustain, a 1977 alumna of Hinds, has served as an instructor in the HCC Associate Degree Nursing program since 1986. Prior to that she was employed with the program, since 1978, in various capacities while she pursued the bachelor's and master's degrees in nursing.

Tustain often serves as instructor and presenter for numerous seminars, workshops, and certification courses; and has been active in the Mississippi Nurses' Association, the American Heart Association, and the Mississippi Council on Aging; and is a charter member of the Organization for the Advancement of Associate Degree Nursing.

She and her husband, Patrick Tustain, Sr., live with their three children, Mindy, Terry, and Patrick, in Vicksburg, where they belong to Woodlawn Baptist Church. Tustain serves as Sunday school director, and teaches 5th grade children and a "Single Again Adults" class; and serves as vacation Bible School director/teacher. In her community, she serves as first-aid nurse for various community activities.

Abney, a sophomore accounting major on the Raymond Campus, is a 1990 honor graduate of Warren Central High School, in Vicksburg.

There, she was active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Future Business Leaders of America, and SADD. ## Get Involved

When will we learn, people? Mississippi is already tailing the nation educationally and we are one of the poorest states in America. What does it take for our legislators to learn what "Cause and Effect" means?

A few days ago I was trying to explain to a child what it means when taxes are cut. I tried to simplify my illustration by comparing the allotted monies being cut to candy that was being taken away. As simple as my example was, isn't that what is happening? Aren't we being starved intellectually?

If we continue to cut the education budget, we are only turning the proverbial "knife" on ourselves. We will be forcing young people who can afford the alternative - to go out of state for a decent education. With them they take hopes and dreams for a better life. When they don't return to Mississippi because of poor opportunities; they will be not only decreasing student body, but also the number of taxpayers in our community. This in turn causes layoffs in state jobs.

Do you see a pattern forming here?

What can we do as students?

Letter to the Editor

Nursing student praises HCC

I am a student of Hinds Community College enrolled in the Associate Degree Nursing Program and president-elect of the Student Nurses Organization. I spoke on behalf of Hinds at the 1991 Organization for Associate Degree Nurses (OADN) Convention in Biloxi to students and faculty from different schools located all over Mississippi.

I started my speech by saying, "Have you all seen the classified ads lately? It's unbelievable to see such a demand for nurses!" I then told them how that sparked my interest in nursing and how I needed to find the right nursing school for me. Initially, I contacted many different colleges to see what they had to offer. Mr. Dale Thomas, counselor at Hinds Nursing Allied Health Center, told me all about the nursing programs there, and because he was so helpful and really explained things to me, I enrolled.

I further told the audience at the convention a little bit about my hospital (clinical) rotations. I had no idea what patient care was all about until my very first day at clinical and that day changed my outlook on nursing forever. I was assigned to a "total care" patient who was dying. The very first time I saw her she had no expression. She would not respond to my voice at all but at the end of that day she was smiling and responding a little. In her I saw a mother, a grandmother, a sister, and someone's best friend. All I could give her was a good bath, clean sheets, combed hair and maybe something to take away pain. What she gave me in return was the belief that I can make a difference and that everyone deserves dignity.

That, to me, is the key between good nursing care and okay nursing care. That is what Hinds has taught me. The program hasn't been easy, but I've grown and have become a more responsible, organized person.

I mentioned to the students about what Hinds means to me, in a small simple story of a patient but there are other reasons why Hinds is above the rest.

I've already told you about the counselors; one was great, and so are the faculty. The location of the school is wonderful too. It is centrally located so students get a wide variety of hospital rotations that provide many different clinical and patient situations. Also it sets some ground by which students may choose to work after graduation. There are externships in the summer provided by some hospitals so we can earn money and learn at the same time.

There are three admissions a year into the Associate Degree

Nursing Program at Hinds producing a large number of graduate nurses. Our tests are like the test on the board exams so we have above 90% passing rate on board exams, which is outstanding!

Sometimes I feel our program is strict but when I look back I can honestly say I know what I am doing and feel competent. Nursing schools vary in the ratio of students to instructor. At Hinds there are 8-10 students to one clinical hospital instructor. You would naturally think that Hinds students wouldn't get so much of one on one teaching that way, but it is good because we, the students become more responsible. We go to the instructor for individualized learning but she does not have to search us out to tell us what needs to be done.

I have made some lasting friendships with fellow students. You become close almost overnight and it really has been great!

Hinds nursing program overall is outstanding. This year students have become even more involved in the curriculum. Hinds now has a Student Nurses Organization of which our newly elected representatives are as follows: Bonnie Bray-President; Danyelle Tedford-President Elect; Shawn Churchill-Vice President; Jackie Patterson-First Vice President; Anita Yates-Secretary; Leigh Langford-Treasurer.

ASG Roundup

by Jennifer Mahaffey

This semester we are already planning big and exciting events for you to get involved in. One such event is a Campus-wide "Twister" game. Yes, I said "Twister" with left hand on blue dot and right foot on red. It should prove to be quite fun for all that participate. Of course, there will also be the annual Hiney-Ho Festival which always proves to be a barrel of laughs.

There is also now another organization on campus called "Positive Peers" that ASG is encouraging its members to join as well as all students of the Raymond Campus. After all, there's no pressure like peer pressure, and no peer pressure like positive peer pressure!

Well, enough of that fun stuff; on to business. Last semester, District Student Government recommended to District Student Affairs that the scholastic and financial aid required GPA be raised. Also recommended was to put a cap on the number of hours a student can repeat. Of course the smoking issue was addressed, and recommendations were sent to Dr. Muse. Well, just wait till you see what we plan to do this semester! There have been suggestions coming in from students that we will be addressing.

We will be trying to get suggestion boxes set up around campus that would be checked weekly by the ASG Senate. New officers will be elected also this semester, so get your "checking" fingers ready to mark the line by the name of the person you would like to see as an officer next year!

Again, as always, if you have any suggestions or anything you would like to see improved, contact me. I can be found Monday-Friday in the Dean of Students' Office located in the Student Union Bldg. Room 215. The phone number is 857-3232 or 3371. You may write to: HCC P.O. Box 797 Raymond, MS 39154. Until my next article, this meeting "of the minds" is adjourned!

Student ASG tours Capitol

The Legislature may be in regular session, but there seems to be a few "special sessions" going on! One such "special session" was held when the Raymond Campus Senate visited and toured the capitol.

This "session" consisted of Senators from the Raymond Campus Senate and State Senators Richard White and Mike Gunn. The visit started with a discussion with Senator White about "The Re-direct Initiative and Referendum" that was proposed by Governor Fordice and Attorney General Mike Moore. He then introduced to us a bill that he co-authored with Senator Gunn which deals with welfare benefits. Senator Gunn expanded on the topic of the welfare bill and explained the process of how a bill becomes a law. He then answered questions coming from the members of the Raymond Senate, most importantly being the question of cutting the education budget. He stated that the state budget was in far worse shape than we probably realized and that there will probably be more cuts this year. He also stated that some ways to keep from cutting the budget again would be to stop the duplication of programs at colleges and universities and to consolidate colleges and universities that were losing money. Senator Gunn went on to tell the Senate about a proposal he is making that a Commission be formed to study the state's education. This Commission would conduct an intensive study of the state's education then give a report back to the Legislature as to what should be done whether to close colleges, consolidate, or leave them the same.

It was an added plus to learn that both Senator White and Senator Gunn were graduates of Hinds Community College and that Senator Gunn was once one of our own, a Raymond Campus Senator! Who knows? Maybe someday, in the not so distant future, members of this year's Senate may be State Senators or better yet, Governor of Mississippi!

Students receive experience

Visual Merchandising students in the Hinds Community College Marketing Management Technology program are receiving actual experience with Thursday's class being spent in a lab setting at Stein Mart Department Store and Stanford's Mens Store.

Students actually get hands on experience in setting up displays. Stein Mart department store has agreed to let these HCC students do all their display windows. "The students are receiving a unique experience not often obtained in the classroom," says Susan Kendricks, Visual Merchandising Instructor. The Visual Merchandising students are able to use what they learn in the classroom in their displays. With the satisfaction of seeing their own ideas come to life on the merchandising floor, the visual merchandising students also get to see what effect their display may have on sales in that particular department.

Regina Brown, assistant manager at Stein Mart says "It is a good benefit for the store because it gives us a chance to learn from the students and meet potential employees for the future". In addition to working at the stores, the Visual Merchandising students recently set up a display booth at the trade mart for Stanford's during the Mississippi Business Expo in January. Stein Mart and Stanford's have played a vital role in the act of business bonding with education. Special thanks to Ray Sparks, manager of Stein Mart and Stan LeFleur owner of Stanford's for their dedication to our goal, and helping better prepare students in Marketing Management Education.

Baseball season opens with MCC

The Eagles of Hinds Community College opened the 1992 baseball season on Saturday, February 29, with Meridian Community College by splitting a double-header. Meridian won the first game 7-4 and Hinds came back in game two to take a 8-4 win.

On Sunday, March 1st, the teams played in a single game with Meridian taking a 11-0 win over Hinds.

Back in the outfield position are Mike Caldwell, Brandoni Jeff Richburg, Jackson; and Albert Sweet, Vicksburg; and at shortstop is Kyle Cook of Clinton and pitcher David Worrell of Raymond.

Looking ahead before the season opens Clarke commented, good team, that's what the Eagles will be this year, because I believe we had a better recruiting season with more local players joining our team as well as several good out-of-state players. We should have a stronger pitching staff this season with David Worrell returning and with the additions of Steven Bourgeois of Riverside, Louisiana; Scot Hollingsworth and Patrick Nation of Clinton."

Other team members for Hinds this season include: Phillip Arrant-RHP, Pearl; Chris Butts-2B, McLaurin; Shannon Canard-RHP, Northwest Rankin; Todd Dalton-IF, Clinton; Greg Hearn-OF, Vicksburg; Clay Hudson-RHP/C, Wingfield; Marty Frisard-C, Bonabel, Louisiana; Reggie Mangum-OF, Brandon; Paxton May-LHP/OF, Clinton; Mark Olive-2B/SS, Northwest Rankin; Brian Pender-LHP, Porters Chapel; Shank Phelps-C, Starkville; Lance Puckett-1B, Hillcrest; Johnny Walker-OF, Hillsborough, Florida; and Stacy Wilcox-3B, Northwest Rankin.

DOUBLE PLAY - Hinds' Mark Olive, 2nd baseman for the Eagles, puts out a Meridian base runner on second and throws to first for a double play. Hinds dropped game one 7-4 to Meridian but came back and won game two 8-4 on Saturday, February 29, at Raymond.

Eagles sign local talent

With national signing day going on across the country the Hinds Community College Eagles have been busy capturing local talent for the 1992 squad at Hinds.

With still a few remaining in-district slots to fill the Eagles signed three Clinton High School players, Mike Mote and Grant Williams, both offensive linemen and Charles Williams, a defensive lineman.

Also signing with the Hinds Eagles were Shane Hollaway, tight end from Pearl; Johnny Kelly, defensive lineman from Raymond; Vic Shivers, linebacker from Brandon; and Chris Smith, offensive lineman from Warren Central.

Keith Washington, a linebacker from Robert E. Lee High School in Montgomery Alabama also signed with Hinds.

Hinds head coach Gene Murphy commented, "These in-district players are some of the best players in our recruiting area and we still have a few more slots to fill. Keith Washington is one of the top linebacker prospects in Alabama that played for the 5A champs at Robert E. Lee High School and he was heavily recruited by the University of Alabama."

With new rules this season community colleges can only have 10 out-of-staters on their squads and Hinds still has a couple of slots to fill.

Sophomore players at Hinds who have signed with senior colleges and universities include: Kenny Miller, defensive back from Vicksburg, Emporia State; Tyrone Bullins, defensive back, West Memphis, AK, Mississippi College; Hason Graham, wide receiver, Decatur, GA, University of Georgia; Scottie Frazier, punter, Brandon, James Madison University; Albert Sweet, wide receiver, Vicksburg, Cincinnati; Zachary Crockett, fullback, Pompano Beach, FL, Florida State; Wayne Walters, linebacker, Vicksburg, Emporia State.

Other Hinds players signing include: Jonathan Boone, linebacker, Pearl, University of Cincinnati; Wayne Murphy, offensive lineman, Blountville, AL, West Georgia College; Jeff Parkman, offensive lineman, Jackson, Arkansas State; Jason Brown, defensive lineman, Pearl, Emporia State; James Dobson, defensive back, Jackson, Troy State; and Joseph Wilder, defensive end, Atlanta, GA, Livingston University.

Sports may get cuts

by Lee Baker
Clarion Ledger Staff Writer

Profound changes could be coming for Mississippi junior college athletics, but not before 1993.

State presidents at their monthly meeting Tuesday in Jackson heard reports from committees studying various proposals that would serve primarily to reduce costs in the schools' athletic programs. They voted to postpone any action until their April meeting when additional studies could be made.

Three other Hinds players have been offered scholarships to play and these include: Roy Dampier, defensive end, Brandon, Arkansas State; Earnest Marshall, tight end, Atlanta, GA, Pittsburg State; and Curtis MCDaniel, defensive tackle, Fort Payne, AL, Jacksonville State.

Other Hinds sophomore players who are undecided at this time are: quarterback Clay Hudson of Jackson, running back Ryan Harper of Jackson, fullback Shun White of Jackson, linebacker Sammy Archie of Brandon and offensive lineman Alex Weathers of Port Gibson.

Spring sports open

Spring sports at Hinds Community College are getting ready for the 1992 season with these sports beginning play in late February and early March.

Dr. Cleon McKnight's 1991 state championship men's and women's tennis teams open the spring sports season when they host Alcorn State on February 26th at 1:00 PM.

Rick Clarke's fighting Eagle baseball squad will take to the diamond on Saturday, February 29, when they host the Eagles of Meridian Community College in Raymond at 1:00 PM in a double-header.

Women's softball with Coach Deborah Nichols as their mentor will take to the field on March 7th as they participate in a tournament at Moss Point at 2:30 PM.

Glen Hall, in his first season as the new Hinds track coach, will also open his season on March 7th as the Eagles participate in the Southeastern Relays at Hammond, Louisiana.

Coach Polly Rabalais and her number three nationally ranked men's golf team will take to the links on March 17th at the Central Mississippi Invitational at Live Oaks Country Club.

Any of the proposals that receive approval would not take effect until January at the soonest. Some, if not all, may not be implemented until the 1993-94 school year.

Among recommendations for football were setting a limit of $50,000 for athletic scholarships, not including federal entitlements; reducing football squads to 50 players, not more than six from out-of-state; regular-season games be reduced to eight from the present 10; staffs be limited to three contracted coaches and two graduate assistant/volunteers and the state play off be limited to North and South Division winners.

Recommendations for basketball included reducing scholarships to 11 in-state and three out-of-state players; limit preseason scrimmage games to four and tournaments to one; start practice the third Monday of September and games after the first Monday of November and reduce division tourneys to the top four season finishers.

Baseball recommendations included squads limits of 36 players with 24 on travel squads; 18 tuition scholarships for in-state and two for out-of-state (which could be divided among six players) and no games in the fall, except intrasquad plus a two-day jamboree among state teams only.

Spring sports, including baseball, are to receive more study the next two months on athletic aid to bring programs for women's teams into Title IX compliance.

Women's basketball takes second place

The Lady Bulldogs basketball team at Hinds Community College lost their bid for the state championship title as the Lady Bulldogs of Holmes Community College claimed their second straight state title with a 93-75 win over Hinds giving the Holmes team a 27-0 record and Hinds a 17-9 record.

In the first round of the state play-offs at Goodman the Hinds team faced the Lady Tigers of Northeast Community College.

At the half Hinds led 39-35 and as the Lady Tigers fought back during the second half the game ended with a 76-76 tie. In overtime play 3 pointers from Hinds' Nettie Tolliver and Gwen Spann put the Hinds team into the state finals with a 86-85 win over the 20-5 Lady Tigers.

Hinds scoring was with Chandria McKay getting 22, Gwen Wilson 19, Nettie Tolliver 16, Gwen Spann 13 and Karen Alexander 10.

In the first half of action in the play-off for the state championship the Lady Bulldogs of Hinds were never able to pull ahead of the Holmes team, trailing 20 to 25 points most of the period and at the half letting the Holmes team have a 51-30 lead.

In the second half the Hinds team was able to pull within 10 points of the driving Lady Bulldogs from Holmes as they went after a second straight title.

Hinds coach Lester Owens remarked, "After three previous losses to the Holmes team our team was a little tight and the fact that we missed several layups in the first minutes of the game caused us problems."

High Scorers were Gwen Wilson 24, Karen Alexander 16 and Chandria McKay 14.

The Hinds team will play next week in the Region 23 Tournament at Mississippi College in Clinton on March 2-3.

Lady Bulldogs win South

The Hinds Community College Lady Bulldogs entered the South Division tournament at Jones Junior College with a 13-8 record and came out as the 1992 South Division Champs and finished 16-8.

The Lady Bulldogs advanced to the State Tournament after beating the Lady Bears of Southwest Community College 67-61. Southwest led at the half 31-28 but the Hinds team took command of the second half and never let Southwest forge ahead. Hinds had first played the Lady Bulldogs of Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College the opening night and took a 74-63 win.

The Lady Warriors of East Central were the next victims of the Lady Bulldogs as Hinds took a 20 point lead with a 76-56 finish to move them into the South Division championship game with Southwest.

Dr. Hopkins challenges HCC students

The featured speaker at an annual commemoration of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. told her audience that the challenge facing America now is, "how to give a certain percentage of Americans a conscience to be stirred".

Dr. Shirley Hopkins, addressing a Hinds Community College audience on the Raymond, MS campus, warned that King's dream should not be taken for granted. "We cannot assume that people know of Dr. King and others who worked at his side or even care. The struggle seems to have escaped the now generation", she said.

Hopkins called King "an advocate for his times" and said, "We need an advocate once again today".

During her speech to the annual event sponsored by HCC's Afro-American Cultural Society, Hopkins spoke of the events of the Civil Rights Movement and their impact on her life and career. She also revealed insights from her eighteen-year career at HCC's Utica campus as a teacher and administrator, stressing the need to keep King's 'dream' alive today.

"There are far too many funerals of young people today; too many die a senseless death. The price tag on life has been cheapened", she said, calling on her audience to return to King's dream and his dedication. Saying that King's dream was an extension of his keen sense of history and belief in justice, she challenged her audience to start "living his dream".

"It is not a dream of color", Hopkins said, "but a dream of mankind. Study, learn, and apply the dream so that everyone can contribute to the uplifting of mankind".

Hopkins reminded her audience of America's role in King's dream, quoting an anonymous civil war chaplain, "Greatness is not in being strong, but in the right use of strength". She urged them to "use the right strength of diversity to begin to solve the problems 'to move America' into the 21st century with a renewed sense of pre-eminence."

FAMILY PROJECT - When Howard Minney, right, of Parkersburg, West Virginia decided to fulfill his dream of getting into the food industry via meat merchandising he also convinced sons Randy, left, and Charles, center, to travel to Mississippi with him and enroll in the Meat Merchandising program offered by Hinds.

Art Dept. plans trip

In the Gallery March 16-April 15 will be the works of Kenneth Quinn. The Art Club is sponsoring a trip to New Orleans this Spring. The trip is scheduled for April 3 and 4. The trip itinerary has not been finalized, but we anticipate visits to several museums and the Aquarium of the Americas. Anyone interested in accompanying the Art Club should contact Art Club members and sponsors or attend the next Art Club meeting. (Schedule of meetings will be posted in the hall of the Art Dept.)

All those interested in entering the Student Art Shows must have work submitted to the Art Dept. no later than Tuesday morning, February 18, 1992. Preliminary judging will begin Tuesday afternoon. All student work submitted must be labeled properly with entry labels which may be obtained in the Art Dept. Student work chosen for the competition will be delivered to East Central Community College in Decatur, MS on Feb. 20. Awards for the 1992 Competitive Art Exhibition will be announced March 2, 1992. The HCC Art and CDA Student Show will be held April 27 - May 8, 1992.

Positive Peers seeks members

Positive Peers is a new group that is being formed on campus consisting of students, faculty, and staff. Its purpose is to create a network of people who influence others in a positive way.

Tara Serio, assistant to the dean of students, created the idea. Through research she found that "studies have shown that if one student positively influences five friends and those five friends positively influence five other friends and so on, a network of positive peers is established."

There are many plans for the group. The first goal will be to become a support group where ideas for "combat" in the war against alcohol and drugs will be shared. "A long-term goal of Positive Peers is to use the group as 'ambassadors' for Hinds to go out into the community high schools and junior high schools and spread the message that drugs and alcohol lead only to self-destruction..."

The group hopes to become a "recognized group" via the District Student affairs. This would mean becoming an official club and possible funding.

The next meeting of Positive Peers is on March 4, 1992, at 2 PM in the housing office. To become a part of Positive Peers, bring "your will to join in and become a member..."

West Virginia family comes to Hinds

Like father, like sons? That's exactly what happened when Howard Minney decided to leave his Parkersburg, West Virginia Hometown to move to Jackson and pursue a degree in Meat Merchandising. His sons, Charles and Randy, soon followed.

It had always been a dream of Howard Minney's to get into the food industry via meat merchandising. A former trucker, he spent 25 years dreaming of pursuing this career. One day, he quit dreaming and made his heart's desire a reality.

He checked out 3 of the 5 schools in the nation that teach the curriculum. After talking with instructor Lamar Currie, he chose Hinds Community College. He then packed up and moved to Jackson.

Brothers Charles and Randy agreed that aside from their father's influence, the food industry is a steady employer. Charles explains with a laugh, "People will always need food."

Howard and his sons are very competitive in class. Last fall after weeks of bragging to one another that each was better, a cutting contest was held between two of them. Howard won bragging rights by beating the younger son, Charles.

They are honor students who maintain a 97 average and they are all members of the Agriculture Club where Howard and Charles serve on the Board of Directors.

Upon returning home to West Virginia, the three plan to open a family business where they will cut and sell meats to restaurants, take special orders, and cater to carnivals and other big events.

How to Save the World

by Trent Bates

Experts have concluded that there are just a few basic needs to ensure life. Food, water, shelter and a sense of belonging or a feeling of being appreciated. We the students of HCC, in sometimes strange ways, receive the 1st two basic needs fairly well. But what about the third, "feelings of belonging?"

Apart from going home and doing our traditional chores, we sometimes neglect that third basic need. It's easy to do. After hours of classes, I feel like my mind needs some type of relaxation. Just about anything will do provided the activity has nothing to do with exposing myself to ideas that are unfamiliar to me - I've done that all day! This is where we students can kill two birds with one stone.

While on this quest to feel like you're needed, or that you belong. What if you could do this AND make a lasting impression from this basic desire? And what if you could make some friends along the way that wouldn't soon forget you?

Everyday, folks spend thousands of dollars to insure that they are remembered for the good things they have contributed or donated. That's great if you've got that kind of space change. But what about you and I? What can we do to really help people without spending money? You'd be surprised.

Believe it or not, right now, there are folks right here in Raymond who want to learn one of the necessities of the twenty-first centuries ... Reading! Just think about it for a moment. Realizing that all of these people really want to learn how to read; how many of them would forget you if you taught them to read? Few, I can assure you. In fact, that's just one area where volunteers are desperately needed. Keep in mind, we're only talking about a few hours per week.

What if you're into the building trades vocational school here at HCC? There's a group here in Jackson who'll give you OJT while you help a struggling family secure a better way of life. Habitat for Humanity would love to see you.

All of you animal lovers out there; the MS Animal Rescue League always need caring people to, so give them a call.

Hey nursing students - you are going to have to be graded on your clinical skills and as we speak there's a critical shortage of volunteers with all types of needs from emergency rooms to the individual patient wings and services. Baptist, Methodist, and University could sure use your help once or twice a week.

AIDS/HIV support operators and teen help lines are also in high demand. Wouldn't it be great to help someone just by being there to talk to them on the phone.

For you students 21 and older who enjoy kids, why not call Big Brothers and Sisters Jackson Chapter. They would love to have you give a youngster a role model to look to for guidance.

For the students that live in the Jackson area, the local soup kitchen is constantly understaffed.

There's no end to the wonderful things you can do and help somebody else in the process. The number of friends you'll make is mind-boggling. Not only will you be fulfilling one of your needs and the community's, you'll sleep better. And while you may not save the world, you will surely make a big difference.

Miss HCC pageant set for March 25

The Miss Hinds Pageant has been re-scheduled for Wednesday, March 25 at 7:30 PM in Cain Hall Auditorium on the Raymond Campus.

The date was changed from early February in order to give contestants more time to prepare talent numbers for the pageant that will send the winner to the Miss Mississippi Pageant in Vicksburg.

Applications for the pageant can be picked up at pageant director Anna Bee's office in the Women's Gymnasium or at the public relations office in the Student Union Building. Applicants must be 18 to 25 years of age, and the deadline for applying is January 31.

A panel of out-of-town judges, approved by the Miss Mississippi Pageant, will be present to select the 1992 Miss Hinds. The winner will then go on to represent the College in Vicksburg this July in the Miss Mississippi Pageant.

The Miss Hinds Pageant is an official preliminary to the Miss Mississippi Pageant, with the winner competing in the Miss America pageant in Atlantic City, New Jersey.

Contestants in the Miss Hinds Pageant will be judged on talent (with a limit of two minutes and fifty seconds), interview, which will be on the afternoon of the pageant, swimsuit and evening gown competition. According to Mrs. Bee, "From Atlantic City, the scoring will consist of 40% talent, 30% interview, 15% evening gown, and 15% swimsuit."

The new Miss Hinds will be crowned by Hinds President, Dr. Clyde Muse, and the winner of the 1991 Miss Hinds Pageant, Valli Penn.

Master of Ceremonies for the Miss Hinds Pageant will be Alon Bee, Jr., and Mrs. Vashti Muse will be the judges' hostess. Circle K will be in charge of decorations and staging.

The admission will be $2 with a student I.D. and $4 for non-students. Hinds has long been noted for its beauty pageants, being the first junior college to send a contestant to the Miss Mississippi Pageant. This year will be Hinds' thirty-third consecutive year to participate in the Miss Mississippi Pageant.

"MESS AMERICA WINNER" - In the annual "Mess America Pageant" sponsored by Hinds Connection, Rodney "Desiree Hot Pants" Howat was the winner out of the 10 contestants.

Hinds celebrates 75th anniversary

Hinds Community College, founded in 1917 as an agricultural high school, will celebrate its 75 years of change and growth throughout 1992.

Hinds' history reflects the growth and changes in the nation as a whole during this 75-year period. From its original site in Raymond, the former home of J. R. Eggleston, captain of the Confederate ironclad, 5.5. Merrimac, to its present seven locations; from the first handful of students preparing for the farming life, to the nearly 12,000 students currently taking advantage of a wide range of educational services, the changes at Hinds have been dramatic and dynamic.

Wishing to involve the community in this celebration, the College is planning many special admission-free events which will be announced throughout the year, according to Jackie Granberry, director of Development at Hinds.

Walt Disney World offers spring special

College students can blast off on "Star Tours," conquer "Space Mountain" and careen through the human bloodstream in "Body Wars" at special student prices through April 10 at the Walt Disney World Resort.

With a valid student identification, college students can take a break from the beach and try on a day's worth of thrills at Disney-MGM Studios Theme Park, the Magic Kingdom or Epcot Center for $22 plus tax. That's $11 less than regular admission. A souvenir button is free with each student ticket.

Students can grab even bigger savings with a two-day ticket for $40 plus tax. The ticket provides admission to two parks of the student's choice on each of two days and represents a $26 savings compared to the price of two one-day, one-park admissions.

Since college students last converged on Walt Disney World for Disney Break '91, all three theme parks have added attractions sure to surprise this year's visitors. To celebrate the resort's 20th Anniversary, students also can enjoy:

* "Surprise Celebration Parade," a daily street party of gigantic proportions, and "SpectroMagic," a stunning nighttime show combining the energy of seven lightning bolts and the electrical power of 2,000 highway trucks - both at the Magic Kingdom.

* "Catastrophe Canyon," where guests are "threatened" by fire, flood and earthquake, and the "Indiana Jones Epic Stunt Spectacular," featuring death-defying heroics - at Disney-MGM Studios Theme Park.

Hinds offers degree guarantee

Degrees and certificates from Hinds Community College will come with a guarantee next year.

In their December meeting, the Hinds Community College Board of Trustees voted unanimously to go forward with a program to guarantee all students that their credit hours earned at Hinds would be transferable to senior institutions which cooperate in the development of the community college curriculum guidelines.

They further guarantee that persons completing skill training will be competent in that skill.

The guarantee for academic training provides that if for any reason the subject hours are not accepted by a four-year institution, the student may take tuition-free alternate courses at Hinds, which are acceptable to the four-year college or university.

When Hinds trains a vocational or technical student in a professional skill such as electronics, welding, drafting, or any other subject, the student must perform to the expectation of the employer. If a student's skills do not meet employer expectation, the student may receive up to nine tuition-free credit hours of skill training under the guarantee policy. O.H. Simmons, Hinds Community College Board member, calls the policy "A step forward in the community and junior colleges taking full responsibility for their curriculum."

He states, "It further confirms what we know, that the community and junior colleges are providing a quality education."

Rhines and Abney receive awards

Amy Rhines of South Jackson and Julie Abney of Vicksburg, have been selected to receive Hinds Community College's highest academic awards for the 1991-92 academic year.

Rhines, a sophomore accounting major on the Raymond Campus of Hinds, has been nominated by the Gamma Lambda Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa as a candidate for the National Phi Theta Kappa Scholarship.

Abney, also a sophomore accounting major on the Raymond Campus, was honored by the State Legislature on February 18, at their annual HEADWAE (Higher Education Appreciation Day, Honoring Academic Excellence) program and luncheon. Both students have carried a 4.0 grade point average throughout their college career. Rhines is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Rhines, of South Jackson; Abney is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Abney, of Vicksburg.

ASG Schedules April 13 Elections

ASG elections for president, vice-president and secretary will be held April 13 in front of Moss Cafeteria from 10 AM until 2 PM.

In order to seek one of these offices a student must be a member of the ASG for at least one semester, have a 2.5 GPA or better and be in good standing with the college.

The election process is a very detailed one of checks and balances. Candidates will first be jointly interviewed by the Raymond Campus Senate. Each member of the Senate will then rate, in order of preference, the candidate for each office. Next will come an interview by the selection committee composed of the Dean of Students, the Dean's teaching assistant, the Director of Student Activities, and the current Senate President and Vice-President.

The members of this committee will submit, in order of preference, the candidate for each office. The final step will be the campus-wide election held to determine what preference is held by the student body for the Raymond Campus officers.

After this determination, the Director of Student Activities, in the presence of the Chairman of the Elections Committee and one other member will tally all votes and preferences. All phases of the election process will weigh equally.

ASG president Jennifer Mahaffey remarked, "One can truly depend on the new officers as being worthy of their offices. What a great system of checks and balances we have and our national election policy should have a system so good!"

"Put On the Brakes" Underway For Students

Drinking is the number one health problem on college and university campuses. President Bush included alcohol in the 1992 National Drug Control Strategy, citing it as "the most abused substance by students." The 1991 survey of high school seniors and college students by Michigan's Institute for Survey Research lends proof to this statement by indicating an increase in the number of "binge drinkers" (5 or more drinks in a row) and daily drinkers in the college-age population.

College students spend approximately $5.5 billion annually to purchase 430 million gallons of alcoholic beverages. This alcohol consumption can lead to dropouts, campus violence, risky sexual encounters, and even death. For example, charges of rape against a University of Richmond student were dismissed last year, when the victim testified that she was too drunk to know she was being sexually assaulted and the defendant testified that he was so drunk that he did not realize at first that she was not consenting. Last fall, a 22-year old University of Idaho student died at his home of alcohol poisoning after consuming large quantities of alcohol at a halloween party the previous night. It is estimated that among those currently in college, between 240,000 and 360,000 will eventually lose their lives due to drinking.

The "Put On The Brakes" program, initiated last year by the Office for Substance Abuse Prevention, seeks to raise awareness about alcohol problems on college campuses and to call for action among students, college presidents, governing boards, faculty, and administrators. Its goal is to suggest that, through concerted action by all relevant parties, a positive impact can occur.

Over the next few weeks, colleges and universities across the country will have "Spring Break". As stated by the Surgeon General last year, "Spring Break has become synonymous with excessive and binge drinking by our young people."

As part of the "Put On The Brakes" program, OSAP has created the College Resource Collection to help colleges and communities reduce alcohol-related problems, especially during the "spring break" months. This collection includes key facts about alcohol, graphics, questions and answers, and sample school policies that can help decrease drinking by college students. Alcohol Practices, Policies, and Potentials of American Colleges and Universities: A White Paper, the Faculty Member's Handbook, and the Program Administrator's Handbook, are also available to give an in-depth look at the problems of drinking on college campuses and strategies for dealing with them. These materials and other helpful resources can be obtained through OSAP's National Clearinghouse for Alcohol and Drug Information, which houses the most comprehensive set of alcohol and other drug information in the world.

Priorities come first, soaking up the rays.

NOTICE

Beginning next fall (Fall 1992) the policy concerning repeating a course changes. Presently only the highest grade is counted. Beginning Fall 1992 all attempts in which a grade of A, B, C, D, F, or I is earned (or has been earned) will be counted in the grade point average as hours attempted. The effect is to "average" all attempts.

The summer of 1992 will be students' last opportunity to repeat courses under the present policy which counts only the highest grade. Students need to be aware of this prior to summer/fall advance registration.

Repeat a Course Policy

(As appears in 1992-93 College Catalog)

A student may wish to repeat a course already completed and in which credit has been earned in order to better his or her grade point average. A grade point average is determined by dividing total number of quality points earned by the total semester hours of credit attempted. In computing scholastic averages in these cases, all attempts will be included and shown on the transcript.

To raise a grade point average at Hinds, the course must be repeated at Hinds. When a student transfers, the policy of the receiving institution will determine the student's grade point average.

HINDS COMMUNITY COLLEGE DISTRICT — Student Publications Policy Statement: The Hinds Community College District sponsors student publications on the Raymond and Utica campuses under the direction of the District Public Relations Office.

The student publications do not represent officially the administration of the Hinds Community College District; however, the District does provide professional staff supervision of these publications in order to provide a responsible context for the freedom of expression of its students.

Natchez sophomore receives scholarship

Kathleen Tipton of Natchez was among four community/junior college students selected from a field of 10 to receive a $3,400 University of Southern Mississippi Scholar Award.

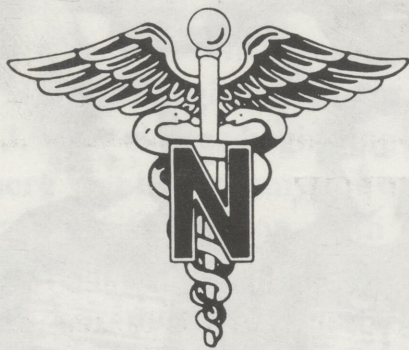

Tipton, 19, is the daughter of John and Sandra Tipton of Natchez and a sophomore accounting major at Hinds Community College. Tipton is a member of Phi Theta Kappa, Main Hall Council, Associated Student Government, Campus Alcohol and Drug Awareness Committee, Discipline Committee and Girl's Bible Study. She is a President's List and Dean's List scholar, and is listed in the Who's Who Among Students in American Junior/Community Colleges.

The USM Scholar Award is the most prestigious award given to a community/junior college student. The field of applicants, which was determined on an interview-only basis, was narrowed to 10, and the 10 were invited to the Hattiesburg campus for a personal interview Feb. 28.

To be selected as one of the 10, students had to have a 3.5 or better grade-point-average, 40 or more community/junior-college hours, no attendance at USM or any other four-year college or university, and significant involvement in campus and community activities.

Mrs. Alon Bee, (left) and Recquel Thurman, (right).

Recquel Thurman, a Raymond Campus sophomore pre-law student, never thought she'd be a model, but soon, her pictures will appear in Seventeen Magazine.

It all started when Thurman's hair stylist, Yvette Smith, of illusions Hair Design, had to submit photos of her original hairstyles, and recruited Thurman as a model. The experience provided Smith with a new career, that of training a model squad for hair, jewelry and clothing fashions, and Thurman with a new interest.

Meanwhile, Thurman had taken the modeling and modern dance classes offered by Mrs. Anna Bee, HCC Hi-Stepper director.

"I found that I love modeling," she says.

With the trend away from the one "traditional" type—tall, leggy, paper thin—and now embracing all body types, the petite (5'1") Thurman found that she could indulge her new-found enthusiasm.

But it isn't all champagne and caviar. In fact, it's all local and caland hard work. Smith is a hard taskmaster, according to Thurman, who now is part of a group of Smith models called "Shades of Illusion."

"We're all ages, sizes, colors and shapes," she says. "We have to work out three times a week, with aerobics and a sport (Thurman chooses basketball), as well as reporting in at the Baptist Hospital Spa four times a month.

The Seventeen Magazine gig involves photos, sent by Smith, which were accepted by the magazine ... and the expectation of being involved in a local shoot, in June.

Thurman is the daughter of Reverend and Mrs. Charles Thurman, of West Jackson.

Hull Gallery offers students relaxing break

If you are a commuter student at the Raymond Campus, you may always be rushing to class and rushing home. If you are a dorm student, you still may not know how much the Gallery offers, if it isn't on your normal class rounds.

But, take a break from time to time, and see what's going on at the Gallery. In addition to finding a haven for a few quiet moments between classes, or between class and the drive home, you're more than likely to find something that will please the eye and inspire your mind. Gallery director, Gayle, McCarty, sets up a schedule each year, so that there are at least six exhibits, each lasting a month.

The Gallery is located behind the art department in the Katherine Denton Art Building. Go to the back of the Student Union and turn down past Brooks and Reeves halls...to the end of the sidewalk. Or, if you use the "North" parking lot, by the new tennis courts, the Gallery is at the last entrance across from the lot, and you can stop Gallery through April 15. Quinn, who recently retired as an art instructor with Whitten Junior High School in Jackson, is well known not only as an imaginative art teacher, but for his approach to his own art work.

The next exhibit will be the annual showing of the work of HCC art and commercial design students. This embraces almost every facet of the visual arts, from advertising layouts to pottery and jewelry, to sketches, watercolor and oil paintings.

The Gallery is open every school day—Monday through Thursdays, 8 AM to 3 PM, and Fridays, 8 AM to noon.

Hinds Loses Chance For Repeat Performance

The Hinds Community College women's basketball team lost their chance at another trip to the national tournament in Tyler, Texas when they lost 76-61 to the Lady Bears of Southwest Community College in the Region 23 Tournament being played at Mississippi College in Clinton.

Placing number two in the State Tournament behind State Champs Holmes, the Hinds team was looking for the opportunity to beat the 30-0 Holmes team as Hinds did in the 1991 Region 23 Tournament which gave them their first trip to the nationals.

Hinds, having beaten Southwest three times before, was behind by four points when Hinds' Gwen Spann missed on a one-and-one, and then with 3:22 to play missed again. Hinds was unable to gain on the Lady Bears as they pulled ahead and won with a 15-point lead.

Leading Hinds in scoring were Chandria McKay with 15, Gwen Spann and Gwen Wilson with 12 each to give the Hinds team a 19-10 record for the season.

In their first game of the Region 23 Tournament the Lady Bulldogs of Hinds defeated East Mississippi 88-78.

Trailing 40-36 at the half Hinds pulled ahead of the Lady Lions with Gwen Spann leading with 25, including 10 of 12 free throw attempts. Karen Alexander made 10 of 14 field goal attempts and finished with 22 points for the Hinds team.

Community College Month

During April, Hinds Community College again takes the lead in celebrating National Community College Month. In its seventh year, the celebration takes the shape of a lot of free fun activities for students, instructors and staff, and the general public.

The free events are a small way of saying "thank you" to the five-county district that supports the College. And, in this seventy fifth anniversary year the celebration is especially meaningful, as a time to reflect on how the College has developed over the years.

In Memoriam

ASG was saddened by the sudden and tragic death of one of our own. Percy Brooks III was an extraordinary student. He was a leader, the type of leader that got tough when the going got rough or when options were stacked against him.

He was a faithful Senator and a great friend to us all. The time we had with Percy in ASG was immeasurable and priceless. There will never be a Senator quite like Percy III; he will truly be missed.

HCC VISA Card Now Available

An innovative and helpful way for friends and alumni to celebrate HCC's 75th birthday is by carrying and using the new HCC VISA Card. The new card, now available through Merchants & Planters Bank of Raymond, lets you give to the College at no cost to you, states Jackie Granberry, director of Development.

Merchants & Planters Bank will allow you to transfer your current bank card balances to your new 'affinity' card. Just fill out the appropriate section of the application. This is a definite advantage to you, if you are currently paying higher than 15.96 APR.

With our College struggling with shrinking state support and growing education needs, we find that we rely more and more on the help of friends and alumni to support our commitment to the community.

Think about it. Every time you use your VISA bank card, Hinds Community College benefits at no cost to you. Plus, the College will receive a portion of the $12 annual fee.

A feature of the new card is automatic common carrier travel accident insurance coverage for you, your spouse and dependent children, up to age 19. You are covered when you travel by air, bus, train, ship, taxi or any other common carrier in the world when you use your card to purchase your tickets. This coverage is available to you at no extra cost. In addition in your monthly bank statement, you'll receive timely reminders of upcoming events at Hinds, registration information, new programs or services, and activities.

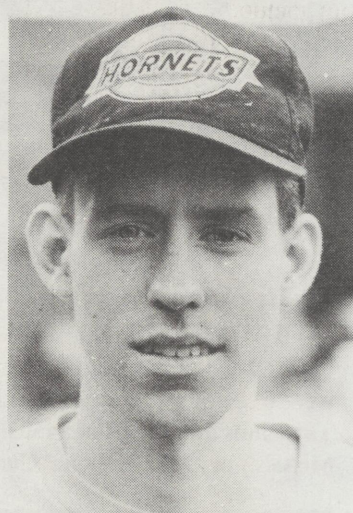

It's a convenient and constant way to give to the Development Foundation, and we hope you will choose to support Hinds in this special way.

To answer any question you may have about the HCC VISA card, please contact the Merchants and Planters Bank of Raymond at 857-8044; or the HCC Development Office at 857-3363.

Budget cuts raise tuition

A 25 percent increase in tuition at Hinds Community College has been approved by the institution's board of trustees. The percentage raises the College's tuition from $408 per semester to $510, an increase which many claim is unwelcome but necessary to combat state budget cuts totaling approximately $2 million over the last two years.

With enrollment at the state's 15 community colleges on the rise, trustees expressed, at their April 1 meeting, a concern for providing quality education to meet the needs of the numbers enrolled.

Board Chairman Walter Bivins said, "I didn't see where there was any other course of action for us to take."

He continued, "Increases in enrollment and reduced state appropriations are combined problems faced by all community colleges in the state."

Of the $35 million budgeted at HCC, only $11.253 million is currently allocated by the state, and College President Dr. Clyde Muse expressed his concern about balancing the 1992 budget.

Muse said, "We've got to balance it somehow, and I see no other substitute."

To make matters worse, fiscal year 1993 could see the College receiving $88,765 less, a reduction in state community college allocations totaling $1.2 million.

Not only has tuition been increased, but other fees have also been elevated by the board. Registration, graduation, and yearbook costs have increased by $5, while car decals have gone up $1. Also, the hourly rate for part-time courses for in-state students has risen $10, and out-of-staters will now pay $25 more per hour.

Moreover, a new laboratory fee of $25 for those enrolled in science and nursing curricula will be absorbed by students this fall.

Bivins said, "We would have preferred not to raise tuition and other fees, but we had to decide between this action or hurting the quality of education our students are receiving."

Board members also have agreed to terminate five teaching positions in automotive mechanics, automotive machinist, and welding programs at the Jackson Campus Academic/Technical Center, plumbing/pipe fitting at the Rankin Campus, and business technology at the Raymond Campus. These adjustments could generate approximately $178,351 in revenue.

According to Dr. Muse, 15 additional vocational-technical teaching positions could be terminated depending on state funding.

The bright side of the increases can be seen in the College's scholarship fund, to which trustees have added $100,000 to help those eligible for financial aid adjust to the College's monetary setback. Scholarship funds currently total approximately $600,000.

"Presidential Speaking"

Dr. Clyde Muse

I appreciate the contribution that all faculty, staff, and students have made to our success this year. Hinds Community College exists for students. I hope that your experiences here have been pleasurable and rewarding and that the excitement of learning will not fade. For those who have not finished the college's offerings in your course of study, I welcome your return to Hinds Community College to continue your studies with us. Whatever your future plans may be, I trust that you will continue your education - a life long process. At no time has it been more incumbent upon an individual to keep up with the rapidly changing needs of our society, to adjust to the demands of the job market, to upgrade old skills and to learn new ones, and to learn about other cultures and people. There is always more to be learned.

As the school year draws to a close, my wife, Vashti, and I have the pleasure of attending events which recognize the contributions and achievements of a great number of Hinds Community College students. As we meet with and speak to these students, we can't help but feel their pride and share their success. We know that Hinds Community College will always hold a special place in their memories, as it will in ours.

Each year brings a new group of students, a more ambitious set of goals for the College, and a consistent display of hard work from our students, faculty, and staff as the College works to maintain its commitment to quality education.

I hope that all of you who are finishing your work with us will become active members of the Alumni Association. We would like to stay in touch. Best wishes for a good vacation.

Art students aid legislature

"Collection Plate," a ceramics exhibit with a political message was set up April 14th in the lobby of the new Mississippi State Capitol Building. The exhibit of one-of-a-kind clay pots is a project of the Hinds Community College Art department's faculty and students and is aimed at making the state's legislators aware of the funding needs of Mississippi's community colleges.

Dubbed "Legislator Pots" by the exhibit's sponsor, Gayle

McCarty of the Art department faculty for Hinds' Raymond campus, the clay pots are all personalized with the names of state senators and representatives. Each pot is unique in size, form, and design. In addition to spotlighting the creative skills of community college students, McCarty says the empty clay pots are also intended to send a message to the lawmakers.

"A lot of the faculty and students are concerned about the lack of proper funding for community colleges. We're worried that the community colleges will get left out when the budgets are being funded this year. The empty pots are our way of reminding them that we're here, too," said McCarty.

As the finishing touches were being put on the display, some Hinds students went a step further to make sure their message was clear. Many of them dropped coins into the pots "to get the ball rolling," as one student put it.

Students enjoy "Project Shadow"

Project Shadow, sponsored by Jackson Business and Professional Women's Organization was a tremendous success again this year. Approximately 140 mentors from Jackson's professional community shared their expertise with 250 HCC biology students.

Participating hospitals were Methodist Medical Center, Mississippi Baptist Medical Center, St. Dominic-Jackson Memorial Hospital and the University of Mississippi Medical Center. Other "shadowed" professionals were at the Department of Environmental Quality, Mississippi Forestry Commission, USDA Soil Conservation Service, Turcotte Fisheries Lab. and U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

Private individuals mentoring ranged from orthodontists to veterinarians.

Coordinating this year was HCC Biology Instructor, Kristi Sather-Smith.

Students who participated made the following comments or what they liked about Project Shadow.

"Being allowed to look over shoulders. Being able to ask questions. Being able to see first hand hospital procedure. Being able to observe patient care. Small groups."

"Snacks were very good and it was nice to start off the day with a cup of coffee. Hands-on experience with real people. It wasn't a test book or a story. It was like a lab on our career."

"The mentors went out of their way to welcome and inform all of us. I feel Project Shadow is a blessing to those of us who weren't sure of our field and with the insight through our mentors my decision to pursue the field of anesthesia is what I really want to do."

"Observing pharmacist's working in a hospital pharmacy. The mentors all had answers for every question I asked, and I asked many. They are very personable, intelligent and patient. I sincerely hope this program will continue."

"It was so exciting to talk with a nurse about her career the good and the bad. I am now more encouraged than ever about my choice of career. I also realize how important my classes are and how I need to really know my stuff. Thank-you to the people who organized this!"

"Our mentors were really nice and they answered many questions. I was really glad to be able to participate in this event and I believe there should be more like this to further educate students."

"The best features of Project Shadow were: the encouragement of students by respected professionals; the first-hand job-related experience the students received; the courtesy of all hospital staff members."

"I had a chance to see on-site rehabilitation of the patients, which increased my knowledge of what physical therapy is all about."

"The best features of Project Shadow were the nice people, the almost limitless access to information and the fact that it affords a student the opportunity to witness actual hospital/career events".

Biology department host summer project

The biology department on the Raymond Campus of Hinds Community College, will operate a "College Discovery" project for 35 area ninth graders July 6-31, according to Dr. Linden Haynes, department chair.

"The program is geared to students who probably would not choose any science courses above those that are required, and who have not considered science as a career," says Haynes. The program is free to participants, she adds.

The participants will live on campus for the four weeks, and will experience all aspects of residential college life. The academic program will include classroom and laboratory activities, field trips, seminars and workshops presented by professional scientists, and small group projects.

This project is funded by a grant from the Institutions of Higher Learning under the Dwight D. Eisenhower Mathematics and Science Education Act. Dr. Haynes and Dr. James Fulton will serve as co-directors. For information, contact Haynes at 857-3294, or Fulton at 857-3405.

Mississippi celebrates anniversary

Mississippi history, music, food, arts and entertainment will be in the spotlight come December as Mississippi celebrates its 175th Anniversary of statehood.

Governor Kirk Fordice recently announced an executive order sanctioning Mississippi Homecoming on December 5-13, 1992, as the official event commemorating the anniversary.

"This is an appropriate time in our history to rekindle community pride and spirit throughout Mississippi," Governor Fordice states in Executive Order No. 711, "to reflect on our past and the lessons learned, to celebrate the present and the energy of the new Mississippi, and to look to the future, to the promise and opportunity that lie ahead."

Thalia Mara of Jackson is serving as executive director of Mississippi Homecoming, with the assistance of numerous volunteer committees. Mara, internationally known ballet teacher and educator, is best known to Mississippians as the person responsible for bringing the International Ballet Competition to Jackson.

"The week will be a celebration of Mississippi—its people, its natural beauty, and its diverse cultural heritage in art, music, dance, and crafts," said Mara. "The Homecoming includes activities for all ages, and we encourage everyone to attend their community's events and then come to Jackson for Statehood Day and the weekend festivities.

"We also hope native Mississippians living outside the state will come and join us at the Homecoming as we commemorate this milestone in the state's history."

Mississippi Homecoming's tentative schedule of events in Jackson includes a day celebrating the state's ethnic and cultural diversity through art, music, food, and dance; and activities honoring the state's contributions to the military, agriculture, sports, and the arts. A grand ball, a down-home picnic, a concert featuring nationally known Mississippi performing artists, the installation of a "Mississippi Walk of Fame," and entertainment by Mississippi performers at area nightclubs are additional events occurring during the week.

Across the state, various events will be held on December 8 and 9 in conjunction with Mississippi Homecoming. Local arts exhibitions, children's activities, and festivals will be some of the programs held in communities around Mississippi.

On December 10, the "Statehood Celebration" will include a theatrical reenactment of the events of December 10, 1817, a salute to state and national civic, business, and industrial leaders; speeches by current and former political figures and civil rights leaders; and an evening torchlight parade.

Mississippi Homecoming is being funded completely by individual and corporate donations through the Thalia Mara Arts International Foundation, Inc., a non-profit organization dedicated to arts education and development. Tax-deductible contributions to the 175th anniversary celebration may be given by checks made payable to Mississippi Homecoming and sent to the Thalia Mara Arts International Foundation, Inc.; Post Office Box 4610; Jackson, MS 39296. To volunteer to serve on a committee or for more information about Mississippi Homecoming or the Foundation, contact Mississippi Homecoming; Education & Research Center, 3825 Ridgewood Road; Jackson, MS 39211; telephone: 601/982-6175.

Chemistry students tour companies

Students in the Raymond Campus organic chemistry classes of Dr. Lester Harrison, department chair, recently toured several large chemical companies in Memphis, Tennessee. On their two-day field trip, the students observed processes at Velsicol Corporation, a company that manufactures agricultural pesticides; Plough, Inc., a pharmaceutical company whose products include Coppertone and other sunscreen products, St. Josephs Aspirin, and Di-Gel; and Buckman Laboratories, a company that produces algacides and fungicides.

"This was very educational," says Harrison, "the students got to see all of the things they had been learning about put to practical use."

Chaperoning the trip with Harrison were his wife, Raymond Campus biology instructor, Joanne Harrison, and Mike Williams, of Utica, who drove the bus. The students attending were pre-pharmacy, pre-medical, chemistry and chemical engineering majors. They were Molly Adams, Christal Barnes, Samantha Black, Chasity Burnham, Jennifer Calhoun, Dina Courtney, Gera Hudson, Mia Jones, Leah Lowe, Regina Sellers and Janice Turner. Also, Tiffany Waggoner, Laura Walsh, David Kent, Jason Russell, James Taylor, and Brent Thompson.
